City Sues Subdivider For $10,500

Central Development Co. Charged with Illegal Transfers

The City of Circleville yesterday filed a $10,500 damage suit in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court against the Central Development Co., Columbus.

Central Development, owned by the McCarty brothers, Ralph and Lloyd, is accused of illegally transferring 21 lots in the Joseph C. Moats subdivision.

It is bordered by Georgia Road on the west; Cedar Heights Road on the north; Mulberry Road and the Ridgewood subdivision on the east, and the Carl M. Bach and Mrs. Merle Thornton residences on the south.

The suit, filed by City Solicitor Robert H. Huffer, alleges that Central Development replatted the Moats subdivision area.

IT FURTHER maintains that the revised plat was never approved by the City Planning and Zoning Commission nor is it on file in the Pickaway County Recorder's office.

The alleged violations started April 20, 1957 when Central transferred three part lots to Paul F. McAfee, a Chillicothe building contractor.

In all, McAfee was sold eight lots and one part lot in the subdivision under fire. Other persons who bought lots were Ralph C. Price, one lot and two part lots; Floyd and Ralph McCarty themselves received four part lots; Willard Edgar Congrove, one part lot; Harold Faye Ben-

Three Injured In Collision On Route 56

A driver and two passengers were injured in a two-car collision on Route 56 about 14 miles southeast of here at 5:10 p. m. yesterday.

Eldon Fox, 49, and Jesse Kneese, 32, both of Laurelville, suffered lacerations and contusions. Fox also was treated for rib injuries.

They were passengers in an auto driven by Ralph Nungester, 24, Route 2, Amanda, who suffered a laceration on the forehead. The injured were treated at Berger Hospital.

The other auto was operated by Gertrude Butts, 52, Route 2, Laurelville. She was not injured.

MRS. BUTTS told Deputy Sheriff Charles Felkey that she was headed west on Route 56 and attempted to turn into a driveway. She said the Nungester car struck her auto in the rear.

Deputy Felkey said both cars were extensively damaged. Nungester was cited for failure to have assured clear distance ahead, he said.

Understatement: 'It Went Off Rather Well'

Macmillan's Conservatives Rout Labor Party in British Elections

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan commented on his Conservative party's sweeping election victory with classic British understatement today. "It has gone off rather well," he said.

Nearly complete returns this afternoon showed the Conservatives had taken more than 20 seats from the Labor party in the 630-seat House of Commons.

The Macmillan party, the nearest approach in Britain to a free enterprise party, rode a wave of prosperity to victory. Dealers were besieged at the opening of the Stock Exchange by brokers wanting to buy shares in British companies. Shares of steel companies, safe for the time being at least from Labor threats at nationalization, led the parade.

A short time later the tabulation of votes put the Conservatives' majority in the House of Commons past the 100 mark. Macmillan's majority in the last house was 53 seats.

HAROLD MACMILLAN
This count from 580 districts

gave the Conservatives 340 seats, the Laborites 235, and the Liberals 5.

Returns from 87 per cent of the districts gave the Conservatives 49.74 per cent of the popular vote, about the same as in the 1955 election.

The popular vote in the last general election, in 1955, went 49.74 per cent for the Conservatives, 46.36 for Labor and 2.70 for the Liberals.

Thus the British electorate spurned lavish promises of tax cuts and pension increases offered by the socialistic Labor party.

Instead they backed the Conservatives' free enterprise policies, their "peace and plenty" platform, and chose Macmillan rather than Labor's Hugh Gaitskell to talk for Britain at the summit.

The vote gives the Conservatives a mandate to rule for another five years. Their third straight win is a feat without precedent in modern British politics. As leader of the Conservatives, Macmillan continues in office as prime minister after the new Parliament meets Oct. 27.

Once the election dust is settled, Macmillan will press on in his drive for a summit conference.

While seeking an accommodation with the Soviets, Macmillan stands firmly behind the British-American alliance.

He is not, however, an uncritical ally. As he sees it, Britain's role is to use its long experience in world affairs to try to bring the Western and Communist blocs together.

U.S. officials in Washington obviously were relieved by the Conservative re-election. They foresaw that Allied policy would move forward without change, rather than have to readjust to Laborite ideas.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union today unveiled more details of Premier Khrushchev's total disarmament plan, including a proposal that international controls be imposed gradually by stages.

Fund Collections Hit 45 Per Cent

With many solicitors still to report, the Pickaway County Community Fund stood at 45 per cent of its goal of $30,000 at noon today.

A total of $13,623 has been turned in to fund headquarters to date.

The new total is far short of the goal, but only a few solicitors in the Business, Residential and County Divisions have reported. The campaign is to end Monday, but, as usual, many solicitors will not report until after Monday.

Indications are the drive will have a tough time reaching the goal, unless solicitations pick up somewhat.

Solicitors are urged by fund officials to make a final effort to make all their calls before Monday. Extra effort will be needed if the Community Fund is to reach its goal for the third year in a row.

IT IS POSSIBLE that some persons have not been contacted by a volunteer worker. If so, those persons are urged to call Community Fund headquarters, GR 4-3012, and a solicitor will call.

Fund president Mrs. Karl Mason said today, "The drive certainly is not 'in the bag' until all calls have been made and all money turned in to headquarters. It's entirely possible that the goal will not be reached unless citizens give until it feels good and solicitors makes every contact."

The Community Fund supports the Pickaway County activities of the Red Cross, Salvation Army,

Ohio Tax Due On Church Dinners

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Sales tax must henceforth be collected on dinners and socials given by religious, charitable and other organizations, Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers announced Thursday.

Bowers filed a repealer on a tax department rule with the secretary of state. He said the rule was inconsistent with an amendment legislated this year to the sales tax law governing casual and isolated sales.

Now, the commissioner said, all sales of property by organizations and others who acquired such property for sale will require collection of the tax.

The legion itself draws no color line.

Boy, 6, Loses 19-Day Battle Against Death

Little 6-year-old Bryon Floyd Moss lost his desperate fight for life at 11:45 p. m. last night after suffering 19 days with third and second degree burns covering his entire body.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moss, Route 1, died in Children's Hospital, Columbus, where he had been confined since September 20.

Young Bryon suffered the burns at 6:30 p. m. September 20 when he threw gasoline on a burning trash fire behind his home.

His clothes ignited from the exploding gasoline and before it could be extinguished, he suffered third degree burns over 65 per cent of his body and the rest was scarred with second degree burns.

THE PICKAWAY TWP. School first grader was rushed by automobile to Berger Hospital where he was given first aid treatment and transferred to Children's.

In critical condition for 19 days, his condition took a turn for the worse Monday when his temperature soared to 106 degrees.

According to hospital officials, the burns affected his blood stream.

Young Bryon was born Dec. 27, 1953 in Chillicothe, the son of Kenneth and Helen Kellough Moss, who survive.

Other survivors include a sister, Dianna; a twin brother, Brant; two other brothers, Curtis and Kenneth Jr., all at home, and grandmothers, Mrs. James Moss, Kinnikinnick, and Mrs. Ida Kellough, Chillicothe.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 p. m. Sunday in the Church of Christ in Christian Union with the Rev. Richard Humble officiating.

Oil Tank Truck Rams Rear of Vehicle Halted by Red Light

NORTH BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP)—A professor and nine Trenton State College coeds were burned to death today when a tank truck rammed into a bus taking them home from a theater party in New York.

Eleven girls and the truck driver were injured, some of them seriously burned, in the flaming disaster on rainsoaked Rt. 1.

The bus carried 40 students, a driver and Dr. Ernest Sixta, 40, professor of history at the college, who was killed. A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he was graduated in 1952 from the University of London where he had been a Fulbright scholar.

They were part of a two-bus caravan which was 25 miles from its destination when the bus stopped for a traffic light in the rain and fog.

The truck smashed into the back of the bus.

The gas tank at the rear of the bus exploded, probably killing Sixta immediately. He was seated in the rear with his wife.

The bus driver said the girls had tumbled out the front door and the rear emergency door which the driver wrested open.

The flames spread to the cab of the truck, where driver Roscoe Poe, 54, of Brooklyn, N.Y., was hanging out the door pinned by his ankle.

"Don't let me die this way," he screamed at approaching firemen Henry Reilly and Vincent Regan. The firemen worked with wrenches and crowbars to free him.

"Thank God you're here. Oh my God, thank God you're here. Help me, save me," he cried over and over.

Just after Poe was dragged away, the flames reached the huge tank trailer, which held no fuel but was full of fumes. The tank exploded and demolished the truck.

The scene of the fiery crash is opposite the farm of the Rutgers University Agriculture College, North Brunswick is 30 miles southwest of New York City.

The bus driver, Carmen Nini, 40, of Trenton, said he approached

Reuther Calls For End to Labor Wars

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, says some way must be found to avoid private wars between workers and management.

Such wars, he said Thursday night on the eve of the UAW convention, weaken the nation's economy at a time the Soviet Union is growing stronger.

Reuther's 369-page program to the 3,000 delegates included a call for greater organizing by labor in bargaining, organizing and legislating.

Saying big business dominated the national scene, Reuther added: "It is no mere coincidence that the longest steel strike in the nation's history has come during the administration of a Republican President who has enshrined the big business viewpoint in the White House, surrounded himself with advisers and golfing companions from big business and adopted industry propaganda on every major question of the day as his personal gospel."

At a news conference, Reuther said profit-sharing is still one of the UAW's bargaining goals although it got nowhere in the last contract talks with the auto makers. He suggested it might be a good thing for the steel industry.

The traffic light at five miles an hour just before 1 a. m. When the truck hit, the impact knocked the bus into the next lane, he said. His gas tank blew up at once.

He said the terrified girls jammed up at the front door. He threw them outside, tossing others out as he could reach them. He worked his way through the flames to the rear emergency door and opened it, just as the truck's cargo tank exploded.

The bus burned for two hours. Poe was taken to a hospital in fair condition from burns. Nini suffered burns and shock.

Eleven students were hospitalized, four in critical condition. Officials of Trenton State arrived a few hours after the crash to begin compiling a list of the dead. They said they would have to work mostly by process of elimination.

A total of 86 girls had gone to New York for the evening to see the Archibald MacLeish play "J.B." on Broadway. Two buses headed back for Trenton after the show.

Poe's truck was one of two owned by Paint & Oil Delivery Co. of Long Island City, N.Y. They were headed for Philadelphia to pick up cargoes of linseed oil.

The lead bus made it through a changing light. The second bus with Nini at the wheel slowed for the red signal in a steady downpour.

Behind Poe's truck was the second truck, driven by William McNeely of Brooklyn. He told police Poe was doing about 35 miles an hour when he plowed into the bus.

Man Is Placed On Peace Bond

Robert Smith, 21, Route 2, Ashville, was placed under a $300 peace bond for one year following a hearing in Circleville Municipal Court yesterday.

Smith was cited on an affidavit filed by William Riser, operator of Riser's Tavern at South Bloomfield. The affidavit contended that Smith threatened Riser.

Appearing against Smith in addition to Riser were Chester Dyke, South Bloomfield Chief of Police, and Charles Neff.

THE CITY P&Z Commission met last Monday and decided to file suit against Central Development while another subdivision, Merle Turner, Town St., was given a last chance.

In Monday's discussion it was learned that one of Central's owners, Ralph McCarty, had been before the P&Z Commission and told he must have the revised subdivision replatted and reapportioned.

The original Central subdivision had been approved by the County Commissioners before it was annexed to the city.

McCarty even consulted with Solicitor Huffer and was told to submit the replatted subdivision for P&Z Commission consideration, according to the facts disclosed Monday.

Instead, the revised subdivision was substituted for the original when it was filed in the County Auditor's office and transfers of lots were continued, the petition charges.

The Commission said these acts were outright flagrant disregard of authority and decided to take immediate action.

Meanwhile, it was felt by P&Z officials that Turner may have misunderstood Commission requirements and desires and should be given a last opportunity to comply with state statute before suit is filed.

Proposed Water Plant Improvements To Be Paid by Rate Increases

One of the first acts of the Circleville Board of Public Utilities after being appointed in 1946 was to employ a firm of engineers to evaluate the water works and to recommend improvements if needed.

A complete report was submitted in March 1947 which contained eight major recommendations. All but two have been accomplished. The two remaining are: Increased water storage and, construction of a softening plant.

In 1954 the engineers were instructed to revise their cost estimates of the remaining two recommendations.

During the period between the two reports, the need for additional storage continued to grow, and the 1954 report contained a recommendation for storage facilities double the original. The reason for the increased amount was the unprecedented growth of the city.

In 1958 the engineers again revised cost estimates for construction of the needed facilities.

THE NEXT important consideration was the determination of a means of financing the improvement program.

The original bond issue was mortgage revenue, which pledged the water works income to pay interest and bonds as they came due. This was a "closed-end" issue which prohibits the issuance of additional mortgage revenue bonds. This situation left only two methods of financing, general obligation bonds, voted by the electorate payable from the city's General Fund, or general obligation bonds payable from waterworks revenues.

It was decided that it was undesirable to employ voted general obligation bonds, payable from tax levy and thus crowd the statutory limitation of such bonds.

State law limits the amount of bonds a city can issue against the general credit of the city to 10 per cent of its tax valuation.

General obligation bonds payable out of revenues from water works operation are not considered in the net debt of the city when determining statutory limitation of debt. This was the method of financing decided upon by the Board of Public Utilities.

The present schedule of water rates does not provide sufficient income to support a new bond issue. It is therefore necessary to determine the amount of increase required and to set a schedule of rates that will produce the needed income.

City Council passed an ordinance on September 2, 1958 which raised the water rates enough to produce income to support a bond issue to pay for the improvement program.

A referendum was obtained against this legislative action. The electorate has the opportunity to vote at the coming election to determine whether the ordinance shall be adopted.

IF THE ordinance is upheld it will be necessary to demonstrate by at least six months experience that the new rate schedule will produce the necessary revenue.

During that period engineers will prepare detailed plans and specifications for the improvements, for approval by Council.

Upon completion of the plans and specifications and on Council approval bids will be taken for performance of the work.

At the same time bids will be taken for the sale of 25-year bonds. After receipt of construction bids the actual cost will be determined. If within the estimate of the engineers then the amount of bonds required will be sold and construction contracts will be signed.

By the time all this has taken place a year will have elapsed and another year will pass before all the improvements are in operation. This means that approximately two years will be required to provide the needed improvements.

The Stars Don't Care

Nations cannot see eye to eye on politics and other mundane things, but it does seem they should have been able to sit down together for a quiet and noncontroversial look at the stars.

Such isn't the case, however, the evidence being that the International Astronomical Union may not even be able to agree on a place to sit for its 1961 general assembly.

A galaxy of pre-convention problems must be solved. One of them has to do with a possible refusal by the Red Chinese to stargaze shoulder to shoulder, anywhere on the planet, with Chinese Nationalists.

Legislation bars visitors to California, proposed site of the assembly, or to anywhere else in the United States, from such countries as North Korea, Communist China and Outer Mongolia, unless the government feels such visits are important to the national interest.

No complaints come from outer space, however, where the stars don't care who looks at them, or from where.

Farm Assets Show Increase

Statisticians are at work to prove that farmers, in the midst of another bumper crop year, have never had it so good.

In 1940 total assets of farmers were $53 billion, including real estate and physical possessions on the farm. Their liabilities, mostly farm mortgages, were $10 billion.

This year farm assets are estimated at $200 billion and liabilities at $22.6 billion. Thus, the net balance sheet of the farmer has climbed from $43 billion in 1940 to $177.4 billion today. That should be graded down a great deal for inflation.

During this span of years the farm population has declined from 31 million to 21 million and the number of farms from 6.5 million to 4.7 million. But despite that shrinkage farm output has climbed 25 per cent.

These figures may make the farmer feel happy, but not the government. Uncle Sam has $9 billion of surplus crops in storage.

But the farmer still has the problem of selling cheap at wholesale and buying high at retail. That his assets have made such strides despite that handicap is the amazing part of the story.

Wife's Role in Business Cited

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — "We believe that behind the success of most men is a good woman, who is a good influence on him—and 99 per cent of the time it is his wife."

You may have heard a statement like that before. James F. Roach, 66, has said it with conviction, over the years, to some 3,000 women who never broke in to protest. They liked his crisp assurance that good wives are good for business.

Roach, ruddy, white-haired, and a family man himself, is an experienced spokesman of a growing corporation trend—to bring the wife into the American business family.

"We don't just hire the man," said Roach, vice president of the Electroflux Corp. "Technically we do. But actually we hire the wife as well as the man because her attitude inescapably influences him."

One of the deans of door-to-door salesmanship, Jim Roach pushed his first button and sold his first vacuum cleaner 35 years ago in the Bronx, after working 14 years for a cash register firm.

He has become a specialist in pushing the button on the front door of the woman behind the man who pushes the button to opportunity. His story to the girls: "Help your family by encouraging your husbands."

Roach cites statistics at company reward meetings to wives and mothers—no girl friends attend on the company cuff—to prove how important their feminine encouragement is.

"Not one of our top 15 producers is a bachelor," said Roach. Electroflux has thousands of salesmen in the field, won't name the number. Roach placed the income of "established successful" Electroflux foot soldiers at from $7,500 to $10,000, with a fervid few topping $20,000.

Since the company daily puts its sales infantry across thousands of new family thresholds, it is concerned by morality as well as sell-push and product quality.

"I'd guess 98 per cent of our men are married," said Roach. "They tend to make better salesmen because of their home responsibility."

"The most common single fault among wives," said Roach, "is lack of understanding of what is required by their husband to find success—and to pay their share of that price.

These are the basic nine questions that Roach feels the wife of any man trying to sell his way in the business world should ask herself:

"Have you got faith in your husband's ability to succeed?"

"Are you willing and capable of demonstrating that faith?"

"Are you undermining his effectiveness by needless worries?"

"Are you making too many or too unreasonable demands upon his time?"

"Are you being unduly critical about his working evenings occasionally?"

"Are you intruding into your husband's business, rather than being a silent partner in it?"

"Are you careful to avoid gossip and spreading stories? If not, this can be fatal to his job."

"Do you always try to maintain a friendly, helpful attitude toward the people in his organization, particularly, toward other wives?"

"Are you trying to 'come out of the kitchen' too soon, and putting a brake on your husband's success by living beyond your means in an effort to outdo the Joneses?"

Cold War Is Defined

By George Sokolsky

We have, for several years now, heard and seen millions of words about the "Cold War" and as is customary in these unarguable days, we do not bother to ask, what is a Cold War? It seems impolite to require definitions; yet without defining our terms, we often move into a morass of verbiage.

As Clausewitz points out insistently in his book on war, its principal objective is to destroy the will of an enemy to resist. He said:

"... the hostile tension, and the activity of hostile agencies, cannot be regarded as ended so long as the will of the enemy is not subdued."

In most wars, this is accomplished by military action, by fighting, by killing, by burning. But these means need not be employed. If the will of an enemy can be destroyed by other and less expensive means, it is sounder to use such means. The least expensive method is one that can achieve an objective without a loss of manpower or territory.

This is what is called the Cold War. It is a device developed by Soviet Russia, the object of which is to break the will of the United States to resist the imperialistic efforts of the Soviet Universal State. It started as an effort to achieve economic and social deterioration; in its current phase, its immediate goals are to depress the spirit of the American people and to frighten them. The principal weapons remain economic and psychological.

What is the meaning of Khrushchev's visit to the United States from the standpoint of these definitions? Khrushchev himself made nothing clear. His speeches were trite reaffirma-tions of his belief in Communism often stated in shockingly juvenile terms; or, they included boasts which cannot be substantiated by any available statistical data. Nothing was said which explains the urgency of the visit, except that the Cold War was moving to the brink of a military war.

A military war takes place for the purpose of disarming the enemy while keeping one's own powers intact. This can no longer be accomplished in any war that employs modern weapons, the destructive power of which affects both sides, leaving power to neutral or to new nations. In a word, war does not pay those who fight it although war can benefit those who do not fight.

Khrushchev had adopted a new form of Communism, namely, one that completely disavows the world revolution. He states his form as peaceful competitive co-existence. In effect, he says: I believe that we can now conquer the world by peaceful means because socialism is superior to capitalism; let us not fight; let us compete and see which side wins.

This is not a retreat. It is a recognition that greater progress by Soviet Russia can be made in breaking the will to resist without resort to military means which can only destroy both countries.

It would be fascinating to know how Khrushchev explained the American visit to Mao Tse-tung in Peking. For what he had to make clear to Mao was that he was in no manner retreating from the Marxist-Leninist line which must include the doctrine of the world revolution.

What we are dealing with is not a change of objective, but a change in tactics. The question must arise: What will happen if the present Seven Year Plan fails to overcome America's economic leadership?

No matter how decadent we may be or how obsolescent our plant may be, Soviet Russia and its satellites cannot in seven years (now really six) equal the productivity and the standards of life of the American people. The time is too short.

There is much talk these days about growth which leads to great confusion. If a country has no steel production at all and in a period of time, creates the plant to produce 1,000 tons of steel, its rate of growth is what? Would you say 1,000 per cent?

But suppose a country produces 100,000,000 tons of steel and does not increase its plant at all because it does not need to, would you say its growth was nothing? And what do these figures prove?

They do not prove that the backward country is moving faster than the forward country. Actually, the machinery of the backward country may have been purchased from the forward country. The rate of growth proves nothing and can be very confusing.

GILBERT HIGHTET, in a stimulating radio talk on "Non-sense," offered as a modern example this excerpt from the late Robert Benchley's "Another Uncle Edith Christmas Story":

"Everyone on board," continued the old salt pork, "felt that something was wrong. We were at that time at Lat. 78, Long. 78, which cancelled each other, making us right back where we started from..."

"Don't tell me that we are back at Nahant again," said little Philip, throwing up.

"Not exactly Nahant," said Uncle Edith, "but within hailing distance of a Nahanted ship."

"You just used Nahant in the first place so that you could pull that gag," said Primrose, who up to this time had taken no part in the conversation, not having been born..."

Be Wary of Tapeworms

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.
Most of you, I suppose, have heard about tapeworms, but I doubt whether many of you know what a tapeworm is.

There are about 26 different species of tapeworms, although many of them are extremely rare. Chances are, however, that a sizable number of you who are reading this column are right now unsuspectingly harboring tapeworms ranging from one inch to 25 or 30 feet.

Tapeworms are flat ribbonlike parasites which occur in the intestines of humans.

The three general types are taken into the body by raw or inadequately cooked beef, pork or fish.

Dwarf and beef tapeworms infect persons of all ages throughout the country. Fish tapeworms aren't so common, but they are found in Minnesota, Northern Michigan and Canada. Fortunately, pork tapeworms are very rare in the U. S.

Dwarf tapeworms are small, only about an inch long, and are taken into the body through food handled by persons who neglect to wash their hands after going to the washroom.

The beef tapeworm is the most common and reaches a length of from 12 to 25 feet. Some of them are composed of enough segments to fill a two-quart jar.

This type of parasite is conveyed into the body through uncooked infected meat. Once inside, the tapeworm attaches itself to the wall of the intestines and matures in two to three months.

Largest of the three is the fish tapeworm. This is the one that sometimes reaches a length of 30 feet and lives as long as 16 years. Fresh-water fish become infected by eating infected water fleas. Humans, in turn, become infected by eating raw or insufficiently cooked fish. We believe that this particular type of parasite might cause anemia in some persons.

Generally, though, tapeworms seldom cause any physical disturbance, although in a few cases there may be diarrhea, nausea or abdominal pain. Worry about the existence of tapeworms causes most of the trouble.

Ordinarily, tapeworms can be found only by examination of the stool. Once a doctor does diagnose them, he has numerous drugs which will help get rid of them.

You can protect yourself from tapeworms by following these four simple rules:

1. Don't eat raw beef, pork or fish.
2. Cook your food thoroughly.
3. Use modern sanitation measures.
4. Buy only meats that are produced under federal or some equivalent inspection.

Question and Answer

Worried: I am twenty-one and

The World Today

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst
Little or big, cold wars are all alike.

To be an able cold war statesman, a man has to learn how to look reasonable without budging an inch.

What he says to his adversary, in effect, is: "I propose to give in to one or the other of your more reasonable demands. In return I ask that you do something I already know is impossible for you. All this will get us nowhere, in reality, but it provides something to talk about, and while we're talking, at least we're not fighting."

In the Middle East's own cold war, Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic has demonstrated the application of this basic cold war rule once again. It is not peculiar to him. It's common to all cold war participants.

That master of cold war politics, Nikita S. Khrushchev, applies the rule over and over again in the big East-West contest.

In Cairo, Nasser shows himself to be an astute student of modern cold war tactics. In an interview with Wilton Wynn of The Associated Press, Nasser expressed willingness to let a United Nations commission carry out a Security Council resolution providing for freedom of shipping for all the Suez Canal, including Israel.

This sounds attractive, Israel

has been trying to force this issue to a showdown. But what is the price?

Israel, says Nasser, must accept internationalization of Jerusalem and the 1947 U.N. plan for partitioning Palestine.

The Arabs went to war in 1948 rather than submit to that program. They lost. Israel occupied territory which otherwise might have been Arab. She also took half of Jerusalem, ancient citadel of Zion, and set up a capital there. Obviously, Israel will not surrender voluntarily on either of these issues.

Neither Israel nor Nasser, who still must be considered the main voice of the Arabs, seems to make much of an attempt to get down to reality in talking about how their 11-year-old state of war might be ended.

But Nasser has put a finger on one thing which might help prepare the way. In his package proposal, he asked that Israel concede the right of Palestine refugees from Israeli territory to choose whether they will return to their former homes or accept payment for their losses.

If Nasser had confined his proposal to swapping the Suez concession for the Arab refugee concession, it would have a chance of getting somewhere. Tied in with the other demands, the proposal remains just talk.

It's possible something could be accomplished if the refugee question could be settled. Few of the million refugees, it is certain, would choose to return to their old homes under Israeli rule. But for the sake of their dignity, they want to have the choice between that and compensation. The payment would be costly, but far less so than a new war, or even the never-ending threat of such a war in the Middle East. The refugee question is the key problem in the search for stability.

The idea of such a swap is sound and logical. Only Nasser, among the leaders of the Arabs, is strong enough to be able to afford logic in that ever-perturbed slood of the world.

THE APOSTLES RECEIVE POWER FROM GOD.

Scripture—Acts 2.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
 THIS LESSON tells us of the power given the apostles by God when they were gathered together in a house.

"And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.
 And suddenly there came a sound from Heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.
 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them."—Acts 2:1-3.

In his Peloubet's Select Notes,
 the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes: "As the wind was indicative of power, fire here certainly points to cleansing and consuming power." He quotes A. T.
 Robertson, who brings out an interesting point in regard to the phrase "parting asunder," when he says, "The idea is not that each tongue was cloven, but each separate tongue looked like fire, not real fire, but looking like fire."

What was the effect of this power from God descending on the apostles? "They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."—Acts 2:4.

"And there were dwelling at

Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.
 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and, being confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language: And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, we are not all these which speak Galilaeans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?"—Acts 2:5-8.

And they were all in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?"—Acts 2:12.
 There were in those days, as there are with us today, sceptics who doubted God's power. Mocking the apostles, they said, "These men are full of new wine" which made them drunk.—Acts 2:13.

"But Peter, standing up with the 11, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Jui-dea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and harken to my words:
 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day (nine o'clock in the morning). But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel: And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams."—Acts 2:14-17.

"Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by Him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death; because it was not possible that He should be holden of it."—Acts 2:22-24.

"This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we are all witnesses.
 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, He hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. . . . Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ."—Acts
 2:32-36.

At Peter's words his listeners
 "were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be

'Angels of Death' Lurk Along Big Ohio Turnpike

CLEVELAND (AP)—Don't pick mushrooms on the Turnpike, the Turnpike Commission warned today. The Angel of Death is lurking there.

Angel of Death is the colorful name given a particular species of mushroom. The commission said Harold Wallin of the Cleveland Metropolitan Park Board de-finely identified this species

among the mushrooms sprouting on Turnpike grounds between Cleveland and the Pennsylvania line.

Before "Madame Butterfly" was made into an opera by Puccini, it was a serious play without music

Dear Abby...
By Abigail VanBuren

Give Your Daughter Courage

DEAR ABBY: I have a 14-year-old daughter who is so boy crazy she worries me sick. All she thinks about is boys. She's got boys' names written all over her books. And every piece of paper by the telephone is marked up with initials and boys' names.

When the doorbell rings she runs like lightning to talk to any delivery boy it happens to be.

What really bothers me is she lies. I don't allow her to go in cars with boys so she walks to a girl's house and the boys meet her with a car there. I found this out by reading her diary. I asked her for the truth and she lied to cover up her lies. How can I get the truth out of her?

MRS. G.

DEAR MRS. G.: The only reason children lie is because they haven't the courage to tell the truth. Give your daughter that courage by assuring her that no matter what she has done you will understand and forgive her. Maybe your threats are too frightening and your punishments too severe. Give your child plenty of love and expect the best, and you'll rarely be disappointed.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has made it plain that he prefers the television set to me. Several of my women friends have the same complaint. What could be the reason for this?

IGNORED

DEAR IGNORED: Maybe it's because he can turn off the television when he wants to.

DEAR ABBY: I am beginning to plan my wedding. Mother and I disagree on the list of wedding guests.

Mother says I must ask all my aunts, uncles, and cousins. This includes all my PARENTS' aunts, uncles and cousins, too. And all their children! I could stumble over most of my parents' aunts, uncles and cousins and not even know them. Why must I ask them to my wedding?

It is a small church and I have to consider the groom's family. If they were to invite as many from their side as we invited from our side, we couldn't all get in the church. This whole thing is making me very nervous. Please send me some advice before I elope and settle the matter.

NERVOUS BRIDE

DEAR NERVOUS: Use a little psychology and suggest that that your mother use a little arithmetic! How many people will the church accommodate? The groom's side is entitled to half those seats. Naturally, the "immediate" relatives are on the top of the list. The more remote the relative, the farther down the list. Lop off the list at the bottom. Now, wasn't that simple?

Do you have a problem? If so, write to Abby, in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

FBI Accuses Pair in Auto Theft Ring

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two men accused by the Federal Bureau of Investigation as being members of a big automobile theft ring were arrested here Thursday. Several other persons are being sought here and in surrounding states.

Frank J. Kiraly, 33, and Albert Lauerhass, 47, appeared before U. S. Commissioner H. A. Horn on charges of transporting stolen autos out of the state. Arraignment was set for Nov. 9 and Lauerhass was released on $10,000 bond. Kiraly was jailed in lieu of similar bond.

Edward E. Hargett, special agent in charge of the FBI here, said the auto theft ring had been under investigation for some time in Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, Michigan, Georgia, Pennsylvania and New York.

Emil Norman Durand, 28, accused of being involved in the ring, was arrested by the FBI here last May 4. He pleaded guilty to violation of the Dyer Act and is awaiting sentence.

The FBI said the ring stole expensive, late model cars in an area from Detroit to Philadelphia.

Agents said the ring worked this way:

Legitimate serial plates were placed on the stolen autos and the vehicles were registered in Georgia, where the title laws are easy. Then the cars would be brought back to Ohio and reregistered under the Georgia bills of sale. The vehicles would be sold through fictitious car agencies.

Planning Commission Allows Turner Time To File Plat

The Circleville Planning and Zoning Commission last night decided to give Merle Turner, Town St., ample time in which to present his proposed subdivision for consideration.

Turner appeared before the commission last night to clarify a misunderstanding in regards to his subdivision, located in the southeast end of the city.

Last Monday he was given 10 days to appear before the commission with a plat of his proposed subdivision for consideration. Until halted last week, Turner had been transferring lots from his unapproved subdivision.

He came before the commission without a plat but with a right-of-way plat with signatures of several area residents giving him permission to extend Norfolk Ave. 10 feet on their land to comply with zoning regulations.

IT WAS EXPLAINED that this was not what the commission desired. Orin C. Stout, Route 1, Stoutsville, the surveyor of Turner's land, said he had platted Turner's subdivision and brought it before someone for approval.

Commission members feel that Stout took the plat to the Pickaway County Auditor's office, but were certain it was never presented to the proper authority.

Attorney Emmitt Crist, 103 1/2 E. Main St., represented Turner before the commission.

Mack M. Wise appealed to the P&Z Commission's Board of Appeals a decision forcing him to abandon his garage business located in the old slaughter house off Watt St.

Monday the commission decided that Wise's garage was non-conforming to city zoning laws which classify the area in which the garage is located as B Residential.

According to City Solicitor Robert H. Huffer, Wise agreed to move his garage business within 10 days after Monday's decision.

LAST NIGHT he appealed. He was represented by Tom A. Renick, attorney, 114 1/2 N. Court St. Renick cited a state law that allows Wise's business to locate in the area and said it is retroactive.

Solicitor Huffer maintains the law does not apply to Wise and remained firm in his decision. The P&Z Board of Appeals turned down Wise's appeal and according to officials, court action may now be taken.

James Ford, 512 S. Court St., appealed a commission permit refusal for erection of a four-unit apartment building at the rear of 166 Logan St.

Ford said he has changed his plans, calling for two units each to face the other on the lot, instead of a four-unit L-shaped building.

Ford's new plans were according to city zoning ordinances and his request was allowed. His original plans called for the building to come within 2 feet of an alley, which was not in accordance to the 5-foot setback requirement.

Robert Kenworthy, rear 422 E. Franklin St., was given permission to erect an 18 by 19 foot addition to his Circleville Appliance and Refrigeration building, located at his home.

HE APPEALED a previous commission decision barring this construction because his business was located in a B Residential area.

According to Solicitor Huffer, a business building in a residential area may be improved if the improvement is not valued at more than 50 per cent of the valuation of the present building.

Richard Spire, 321 S. Washington St., asked permission to erect a carport adjoining his garage, which he is using for his business as a newspaper distributor.

His request was disapproved because the car port would not be 5 feet away from the alley line. It also was brought out that Spire's business building is in a B Residential area.

John C. Taylor again presented his temporary southend subdivision plans to the P&Z Commission. P&Z officials ruled that since Taylor's subdivision is outside the corporation limits, he needed County Commissioner approval and would await their decision.

Steel Strike's Actual Cost Is Only a Guess

Even U.S. Treasury To Take Loss as Result of Walkout

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The steel strike's harm to the economy can only be estimated. But it has run into the millions. And before all its effects are over, it may run into the billions.

Because things won't be the same again for some time, even if workers are back at the steel mills for 80 days under a federal court injunction. There's a long time lead between orders and delivery of steel. An even longer one intervenes before any effects show up in consumer prices.

It's easy to figure how much the workers would have been paid if they had been working instead of striking—that is, assuming that they would have been working at the same pace as before the strike.

It's easy to figure how much tonnage the steel companies didn't produce and sell—that is, assuming their orders would have held up at the old prestrike rate.

And the loss in pay to railroad workers and coal miners laid off, and in earnings of their bosses, can be figured on the same basis—the assumption that the roads would have been carrying as much coal and ore and scrap and as much finished steel products since July 15 as they were before the strike started.

But what the users of steel in their own plants have lost in lower production, and their workers in layoffs or slowdowns, is harder to come by.

How much they stand to lose after the mills start up again, because consumers' inventories will be exhausted before steel shipments can replenish them, is even harder to estimate. Many think the loss will be quite high.

Many factories had to buy premium-priced steel to keep going, and many may have to buy still more after the mills reopen.

Merchants in the areas hardest hit by the strike and the layoffs can estimate how much trade, other than for necessities, they have lost. Many are wondering how much lower their Christmas trade may be, how much cheaper the presents will be, if any are sold.

The U. S. Treasury also is keeping a nervous eye on tax collections, since both corporate and individual incomes will be down wherever the strike hit hard. With the new federal budget in precarious balance at best, the long strike could be the Achilles' heel of the budget makers.

What the public stands to lose if a final settlement means higher prices for the basic commodity, only time can tell.

The long and bitter dispute could affect future management-labor relations in many lines. The public has come to look on the struggle over management's demand for a return to more control over its mill operations as a crucial one in labor relations. Labor, in and out of the steel industry, takes that view.

That is why so many people have been cool to the idea of calling an 80-day cooling off period. They question whether the negotiations that would be going on during that period would lead to any meeting of the minds. They doubt if it would inspire either side to budge and that would leave the nation with a continuation of the strike on its hands.

Cleveland Planning Race for State Auditor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—

George B. Tackett of Cleveland applied today for petitions to qualify as candidate for the Democrat nomination for state auditor in the 1960 primary election.

It was the first request received from a candidate for the only statewide office up for decision next year. Normally a four-year term, the auditor's next term will be for two years. It will return to a four-year term in 1962 to coincide with the four-year terms of other statewide elective administrative offices.

World's Hottest Pilots Eye Their Roles in Outer Space

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Two years ago this month some of the world's hottest pilots sat down to a sumptuous dinner—and found they had lost their appetite for the meal, and for the future they faced.

The occasion was the first annual banquet of the Society of Experimental Test Pilots. The date—

Oct. 4, 1957.

That was the night the Soviet Union launched Sputnik I into orbit. And there was no man in it.

"We suddenly became aware," recalls society president Al Blackburn, "That the pilot's role was going to be secondary unless we became more active in demonstrating that the rigors of space are no worse than the rigors of

Round Rolls--Was Duke's Car

The round Rolls rolls along with Mrs. Obie at the steering wheel.

By CHARLES MATHIS
Central Press Association
Correspondent

WILDWOOD, N. J. — So you think tail fins are among the latest things in automotive design? Max Obie of Wildwood-by-the-Sea, N. J., owns a 1934 Rolls Royce that has a king size tail fin down its back. However, this is only one of dozens of the unique features of his car.

The car, made for the Prince of Wales (now the Duke of Windsor), was entirely hand-built and took four years to complete. The price tag was $100,000. The car weighs 7,200 pounds and its 22-foot body is made of hand-pounded steel.

The six-cylinder, dual ignition motor is made of aluminum and brass, and all the bright work — steering wheel spokes, gear shift, brake lever, etc., are German silver. The floor covering is lamb's wool and the ceiling of the car is lined with velvet.

Design-wise, the circular doors, back fin and louvers are traffic stoppers. A repaint job, with a mixture of gold powder and lacquer, costs $3,000!

OBIE GOT the car in 1952 by swapping his American convertible plus cash for it. Constructed under today's costs, the car probably would cost about a quarter of a million dollars.

The red velvet ceiling has a sliding skylight roof. Genuine red and white leather seats let down into a bed by releasing the straps on the sides.

The car has circular doors and the fin and louvers allow the riders to see out from the back, but outsiders can't see in.

Mrs. Obie steps out through round door.

The valuable showpiece is very seldom driven, Mrs. Max Obie says, in order to conserve what the Obies hope will be a genuine antique. They usually display the car on a specially constructed truck.

The tail fin is used as a stabilizer when the car is traveling at high speed.

10 Volunteer Firemen Dismissed from Force

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Merle Gifford, fire chief of nearby Boardman, has dismissed 10 volunteer members of the fire department for failure to comply with rules and regulations. He said that on Sept. 17 "several fellows" reported for a fire, spent about 15 minutes there and left. They just wanted to collect the $2.50 paid each for fighting a fire, Gifford asserted.

Summerfield Seeks 'Sound' Government

CLEVELAND (AP) — Postmaster Gen. Arthur E. Summerfield decries "the most crucial problem facing this country" as "the need for all who believe in sound government to stand forth day after day and support the efforts that must be made to maintain it."

By sound government, Summerfield said in an address to the fall conference of the Associated Industries of Cleveland, he means government "with responsible economic policies opposed to inflation, excessive taxation, and misuse of monopoly power."

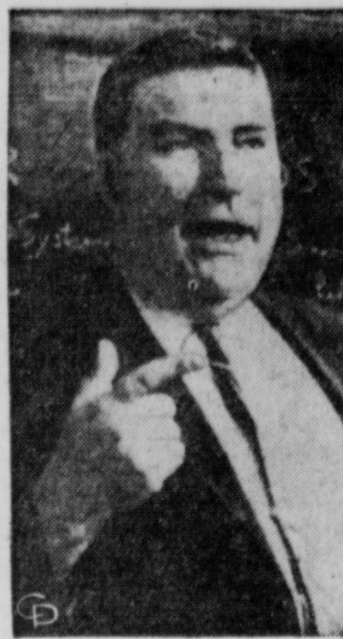

The alternative, Summerfield indicated, is a government "that accepts inflation, confiscatory taxation and abuse of monopoly power as a political necessity."

He called it a "vital victory for the political vigor of the American people" that "the spenders fell back in retreat" in the session of Congress that ended last month.

The postmaster general said passage of the new labor law was "a triumph for the American people" over "what is probably the strongest pressure group this country has ever known." He said he meant "union monopoly leaders" who he foresaw as spurred by the defeat to "be devoted more intensely than ever to the effort to obtain their own brand of political advantage."

Preacher Given Fine, But Penalty Suspended

CLEVELAND (AP)—A fine of $5 and costs was suspended by Municipal Judge Louis Petrash Thursday for Fulton H. Baker, 54, for preaching on the sidewalk in front of Terminal Tower. Baker and four other Baptist evangelists were arrested the night of Aug. 27 under an old city ordinance forbidding persons to "congregate upon or occupy sidewalks." The case caused both the police chief and police prosecutor to assert that the ordinance as it stands conflicts with the Bill of Rights and should be revised.

Public Utility Taxes Expected To Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A six per cent increase in public utility taxes is expected this year, according to figures certified Thursday by Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers.

The figures for this fiscal year are $40,261,855, Bowers said, compared to about 38 million dollars last fiscal year.

Some 21.4 million dollars of the taxes will be returned to local governments for poor relief and welfare. Another 18.8 million will remain with the state. This goes into the general fund but the amount and sometimes more is paid out to match local poor relief funds.

Cleveland Unemployment Shows Decline

CLEVELAND (AP) — A survey just completed by the Ohio State Employment Service shows that unemployment in Cuyahoga and Lake counties has dropped to the level preceding the business recession which started in the summer of 1957.

The number of jobless as of Sept. 15 was estimated at 22,000, or the same in July, 1957. After reaching a peak of 72,000 in May, 1958, unemployment in the two counties has been dropping gradually ever since, except for a month of seasonal layoffs last January following the holidays.

The survey shows total employment in the two-county area at an estimated 677,500, a drop of 16,100 in the last two months. The all-time peak was during the Korean war when 731,000 persons were employed.

Donald Smith, Cleveland area manager for the employment service, said the decline during the past two months is accounted for by the striking steelworkers and employees laid off in other industries as a result of the steel strike. "We're up 1,700 over a year ago despite the strike," he said.

The survey shows that average weekly earnings of production workers in manufacturing plants, excluding the struck steel mills, declined from $106.24 in July to $104.24 in August.

Meany Chided By Carey in Labor Dispute

CLEVELAND (AP)—A rift between George Meany, president of the AFL - CIO, and James B. Carey, one of the merged labor federation's vice presidents, looks wider today because of a speech Carey made to a convention here. Carey told nearly 1,000 delegates to the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union convention here Thursday:

"I was so awfully displeased at the AFL - CIO convention when George Meany took off after a man who was doing the right thing in representing his membership."

The reference was to a debate on segregation policies of some AFL-CIO unions during the convention at San Francisco last month.

"It was awfully fortunate that A. Phillip Randolph is a great man, a Negro and a trade unionist," Carey continued, "because he is accustomed to taking abuse. I don't think he ought to have to take it, though, from the leader of the labor movement."

Meany and Randolph, head of the Negro Sleeping Car Porters Union, became involved in a heated debate at the convention Sept. 23. Randolph was demanding elimination of racially segregated union locals and punitive action against locals that resisted.

Meany was quoted as shouting at Randolph:

"Who the hell appointed you as guardian of all the Negro members in America?"

Ex-Ohio Highway Boss Now Working for Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's former highway director, Charles M. Noble, now is a part-time consultant for the White House at $50 a day for the days he works. A White House aide said he works three days a week on the average.

Noble's pay was in the news when he was highway director in Ohio. He was paid $30,000 a year — $5,000 more than the governor under whom he served, C. William O'Neill.

In his new job Noble serves as an advisor to Maj. Gen. John S. Bragdon, President Eisenhower's administrative assistant on highway matters.

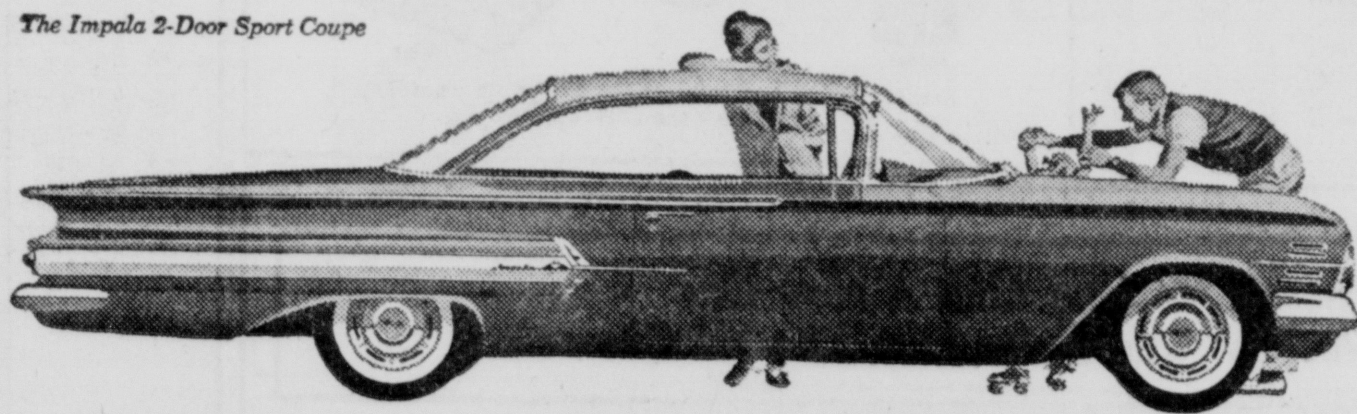

Railroads Ruled Liable For Crossing Warnings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Railroads have to provide grade-crossing warning systems, not the state or county governments, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy ruled Thursday.

The opinion was directed to Highway Director Everett S. Preston.

Preston also was informed that local governments could not "enter into agreements" with railroads to place warning systems.

CHS Tigers Alert For Indian Test

The Circleville grid Tigers probably will find slippery footing on a rain-soaked field at Hillsboro tonight.

Heavy rain has struck the Highland County city this week and the wet gridiron probably will present a real test for the Tigers' speedy offense.

The Tigers, looking for their second South Central Ohio League win in two starts, should be able to make the adverse weather adjustments following a couple mud-splattered practices this week on the local field.

Coach Carl Benhase had his squad inside yesterday in a final session before tonight's trip. Practice in light dress was confined to running plays. Blocking dummies were used to add a little realism.

CIRCLEVILLE will be bolstered by the return of Center Pat Rooney, out of action since the Lancaster Preview with an injured knee.

Coach Benhase said Rooney has worked out this week in pads, but still has not been running at full speed. The determined sophomore ball-snapper should be ready for a heavy assignment within the next few days.

Slated to see heavy duty for the Tigers tonight are Ends Jake Bailey, Dick Warner, Alex Cook and Leo Moats, Tackles Dave Huffer, Dan Leonhardt and John Williams.

Guards Harold Arledge, Dave Hicks and Irving Ellis and Centers Linden Gibson and Steve Helwag.

Leading the CHS offensive punch will be Halfbacks Archie Ward and Gary Vandemark, Fullback Larry Hannans and Quarterback Dave Smith.

Hillsboro's most consistent runner probably will be Fullback Don Jones, a co-captain of the team. The Indians will bring a record of one win and two losses into the Tiger contest.

Reports out of Hillsboro disclosed that the Indians have been putting in their roughest practice of the season this week in preparation for the Circleville invasion.

THE INDIANS have lost their last two games, but will go all out tonight in what they consider a crucial SCO contest.

Coach Benhase has reminded his charges all week that they will have to be alert and live in order to down the Indians on their own field.

Another SCO scrap tonight will pit Wilmington at Greenfield. The Tigers stomped Wilmington, 38-14, last week and rugged Greenfield comes here next Friday.

Strong Washington C. H. takes a breather from league play to take on powerhouse Cincinnati Purcell. The Tigers meet WCH on Nov. 13, the last game of the season.

Rip-Roaring Weekend Ahead Of Colleges

SMU Star Awaits Big Chance in Game Against Missouri

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Don Meredith, Southern Methodist's highly touted quarterback, is supposed to come into his own tonight when the Mustangs face Missouri at Dallas. The inter-sectional game kicks off a rip-roaring college football weekend.

Just why Southwest football observers feel that Meredith isn't up to his usual par is hard to understand. SMU has a 1-1 record, scoring five touchdowns. Meredith has been involved in four. He has thrown three touchdown passes and scored one on a short run.

Coach Dan Devine of Missouri isn't commenting on a Meredith "surge" for he has already felt the sting of Penn State's Richie Lucas, who completed 10 of 11 in handing the Tigers their only loss, 19-8.

Other top games tonight find West Virginia at Boston University, Detroit at Tulane and Oregon at San Jose State.

Saturday the fur flies — and in large gobs in Knoxville, Tenn., Lafayette, Ind., and back again in Dallas' Cotton Bowl.

Georgia Tech and Tennessee meet in Knoxville in a battle of defenses that promises to rock the Southeastern Conference. The winner can draw a bead on Louisiana State's SEC title, though only the Vols play LSU.

Ninth-ranked Wisconsin travels to Lafayette to meet Purdue (No. 7) to see if it can live up to its pick to be the Big Ten's champ and Rose Bowl Participant.

In Dallas Oklahoma comes to meet fourth-ranked Texas. Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners are 1-1 but on the upgrade following the disastrous 45-13 opening loss to Northwestern. The game is being televised regionally in the Southwest.

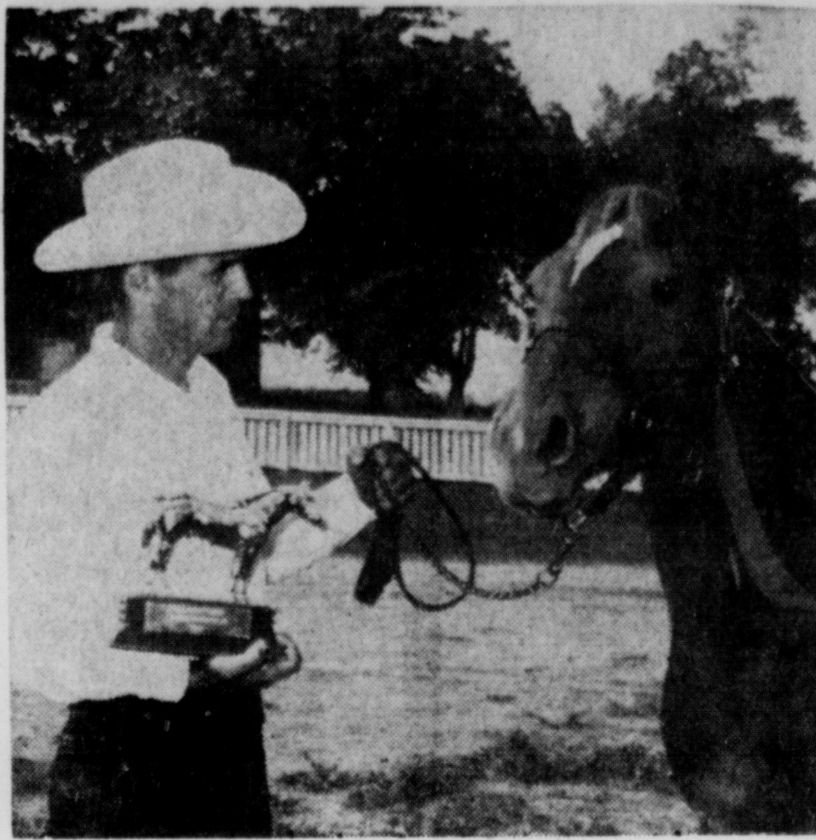

Top-ranked Louisiana State (3-0) plays Miami, Fla., whose Hurricane's have emerged with a solid defense. Second-ranked Northwestern plays Minnesota, with the Wildcats also eyeing a Big Ten title after beating Iowa last week.

Fifth-ranked Mississippi pits its 3-0 record against SEC neighbor Vanderbilt, a two-touchdown underdog. The other member of the Associated Press' top ten in action is tenth-ranked Iowa, who plays Michigan State in a game that is regionally televised in the Big Ten area.

The season's first bowl game—the Oyster Bowl, at Norfolk, Va.—pits power-packed Syracuse, with its second-ranked (415.5 yards per game) offense and top-rated defense (48.0) against Navy, who will get only limited service from top ground-gainer Joe Belino.

Johnson Filly Is Top Horse In Registered Quarter Spot

"KATE BABY CODY"

A Williamsport filly is high point halter horse in the registered Quarter Horse division of the Ohio Western Horse Assn.

Winner of the annual award is "Kate Baby Cody", two year old filly owned by Frank Johnson and son, Williamsport.

Campaigned successfully throughout Ohio and Indiana this season, the champion mare is the only Ohio-bred colt in the top five halter horses of the Ohio Quarter Horse Assn.

Granddaughter of famous Quarter Horse "Bill Cody", "Kate" has

Full brother of the filly and also a winner at halter is the mare's first colt, "Pan Cody", shown to Register of Merit in reining and roping by owner Rodney Vincent, of Washington C. H.

Clay To Oppose Rodriguez in Bout

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Young Von Clay who hoped to be in the position of an upsetter tonight now finds himself the upset target.

The unbeaten Philadelphia light heavyweight originally was scheduled for 10 rounds against Jesse Bowdry, highly rated St. Louis belter. Bowdry, ranked third by the National Boxing Assn. and fourth by Ring Magazine, pulled out of the fight. He told promoter Herman Taylor he had a virus and was advised by a physician not to fight for at least three weeks.

Taylor then signed unranked Kid Sixto Rodriguez, California state light heavy champion, as the opponent for Clay in the nationally televised (NBC) bout. Rodriguez sports a 24-1-1 record.

Six-Man Loop In 3rd Round

Darby, Stoutsville Leading Grid Race

The Pickaway County Six-Man Football League jumps into third round action at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow on the County Fairgrounds' field.

League co-leader Stoutsville starts first game action against Salt Creek at 6:30 p. m. Second place Walnut battles co-titlist and defending champion Darby at 7:45 p. m.

Final game of the night finds cellar dwellers Pickaway and Scioto doing battle. Only one team will be in the basement after Saturday night unless the Pirates and Buffaloes happen to battle to a tie.

The Indians will rely on spectacular Richard Bussett to lead them down victory trail No. 3. The 170-lb. speedster is backed by a fine squad of swift backs and rugged linemen.

SALT CREEK, with all the breaks the wrong ones last week, could be the team to halt Stoutsville in its tracks. The passing of Keith Turvey and football ability and desire of George Clifton are capable of taking any opponent to task.

An improved Walnut will face the Darby Trojans, who seem to have a way of winning no matter the odds. Darby has gotten into the victory habit after many years and has become attached to being on top.

The Tigers must stop the passing and running tactics of Tommy Walters and Tommy Liff. Meanwhile, the Trojans will need a spread passing defense to halt the aerial combination of Tom Harber and Dave Weaver.

Last week these two lads joined forces for 20 points and this explosive type football could be Darby's downfall. The Trojans will be seeking their eighth straight win over a two-year period.

The winless meet in the evening's final game. The Pirates, after putting up a bitter defense against Darby, last week fell apart and dropped a 47-12 decision to Stoutsville.

Stoutsville could do no wrong and Pickaway couldn't do anything right. Richard Dean and Joe Goeller are the Pirate stars on an otherwise dismal Pickaway scene at present.

Scioto, failing no better, pins its hopes on the passing of Dick Kaisler and running of Roy Sanders and Larry Hancock.

Chicago-go-go Fades; Bums Cop '59 World Series

CHICAGO (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers are the world champions of baseball today.

They beat the Chicago White Sox 9-3 Thursday in the sixth game of the World Series — and they did it in Chicago's Comiskey Park.

The Dodgers' victory, behind right-hander Larry Sherry, smashed the hopes of the White Sox, which had soared when the Chicago team scored a 1-0 comeback triumph Tuesday in the Los Angeles Coliseum, returning the Series to their home ground.

The Dodgers got rid of the best in the way of pitching the Sox had to offer, chasing burly Early Wynn early and sending Dick Donovan off in close pursuit.

It was only the second world championship in 10 tries for the Dodgers, their first since shifting to Los Angeles from Brooklyn two years ago.

Both championship teams have been managed by Walt Alston, who has led the Dodgers to three pennants in his six years.

This could be the richest of all series when the record $892,365.04 player pool is split up. A full winner's share should be worth at least $10,000 a man to the Dodgers possibly $11,000. The Sox should get from $7,000 to $7,500 each, which would be a record for a losing share.

This Dodger victory, making them the first ever to rocket from seventh place one year to the world championship the next, is the National League's fourth in six years over the American. The AL still leads in the over-all standings, however, 35-21.

The Dodgers, whose two defeats were shutouts, started rumbling against Wynn in the third in the finale when Duke Snider sent a 400-foot home run into the lower left-center-field seats with a man on.

Wynn, the first game winner at 11-0, got as far as the fourth inning in his third start of the series. The big right-hander showed quick signs of wildness. He gave way when Dodger southpaw Johnny Podres walloped an RBI double to center.

That brought in right-hander Donovan, whose brilliant relief performance in Los Angeles had saved the fifth game for the Sox. This time, he gave up a walk to Junior Gilliam, a two-run double by Charlie Neal and a two-run homer by Wally Moon.

That made it a six-run inning, the Dodgers' largest ever in a series, and led to a string of six Sox pitchers. No. 5 was Billy Pierce, the experienced little southpaw.

There is no doubting the big man of the series. At 24, Sherry proved a cool, careful right-handed reliever. He was in on each of the Dodgers' four victories.

In all, he worked 12 2-3 innings in the four games, giving up eight hits and just one run while walking but two and striking out five in the series — first ever without a complete game pitcher on either club.

The Sox, a tight defensive club that made the most of its opportunities to win its first pennant in 40 years, were unsettled by the Coliseum, where the white-shirted, three-game crowd of 277,550 provided a poor background for fielders and hitters alike.

But Manager Al Lopez figured the best way to say what beat his Sox was "Sherry and Neal. They were the difference."

Neal, the thin thumper who plays second base, led both clubs with 10 hits and batted .370. He won the second game with two home runs.

Campbell Steel Mill To Get Oxygen Plant

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—An oxygen plant costing about a million dollars will be built by the Linde Air Products Co. at Struthers to bolster Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co.'s steel-making operations at its Campbell works.

Broncs Seek First Grid Win In Madison South Test Today

Still seeking their initial victory of the 1959 football season, the Ashville Broncos will face their stiffest test of the early campaign when they tangle with Madison South today at 8 p. m.

Tied for the Darby Valley League lead, Madison South has a clean slate with victories over Southeastern, 12-0, Triad, and Jonathan Alder, 28-14.

Standout runner for Madison is John Clemans, a returning veteran whose 195 lbs over a 5'11" frame will be difficult for Ashville defenses.

Clemans, a hard driving fullback, is not the only Madison South the Broncos were held to 84 yards while Sterling pounded to 296. The Broncos trail in all statistics except fumbles, where they have misused only three times to their opponents' eight.

In an effort to bolster his line corps, head coach Russell Gregg has shifted the entire left side of his forward wall.

Brown has been the star of the Bronco squad with his shattering tackles and stellar linebacking duties. Jimmy Gregg will get another chance at offensive quarterback after losing the job for one week to Bill Cromley. Cromley will continue playing defensive safety man.

Showing Gregg's concern is the fact that Reese, now an offensive tackle, is the squad's leading ground gainer with 164 yards in three games.

AN END, Dale Fout follows with 89 yards gained and Jim McNeal is third with 84 yards. Dick Noggle has 36 yards, followed by Clarence Bandy and Cromley, 27 yards, Dan Hollenback, 17, and Gregg, 13 yards.

Madison South, a consolidation of three Madison County schools, South Solon, Cannon and Midway, is located five miles north of Sedalia.

Persons planning to attend the game are given the following suggested route. Go to Mt. Sterling, take Route 323 west of Mt. Sterling to Sedalia, then take Route 38 north to Madison South.

threat. Bob Rey, a sleek dash man, will be running from a halfback position.

REY won the DV 100-yard and 220-yard dashes last spring and placed second in district competition. Rounding out the triple threat trio of South speedsters is clever signal-caller Bob Edwards.

The Madison County squad will run from a split-T offense. Madison is especially adept at the belly series.

Adding more woe to the Ashville camp is the fine rollout passing off the fake belly series that has shown promise in Madison's first three contests.

The roll-out pass is tough to stop by any defense and Ashville has been weak in this spot in its first four games.

The battle will take place at Madison South where it will be homecoming.

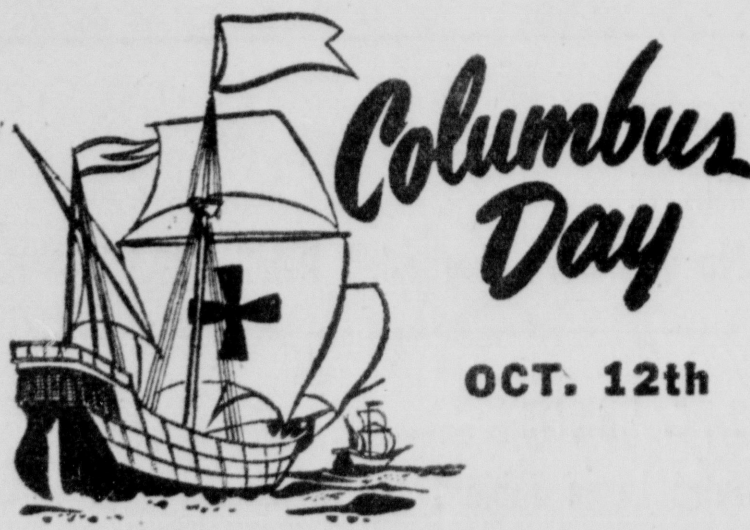

Ashville dropped an 8-0 encounter to Madison last year. The Broncos will be looking for revenge.

THEIR DEFENSE has jellied most of the season, while the offense has yet to get into gear. In the first three games, Ashville gained 633 yards to its opponents' 788 yards.

Ray Renfro May Miss Giants Game

CLEVELAND (AP)—A foot ailment may keep Ray Renfro on the sidelines when the Cleveland Browns meet the New York Giants in their home opener Sunday.

Renfro, the Browns' fleet flanker back, did not participate in Thursday's drill on defense.

A calcium deposit is believed to be causing Renfro's trouble. He was hit by the painful arch condition a few days before the season opener at Pittsburgh, but with the aid of several injections of a pain reliever he struggled through most of that game.

"I didn't realize Ray was ailing as much as he was in Pittsburgh," Coach Paul Brown said Thursday. "He seemed all right before the game and I didn't notice him limping later on."

Brown said he would start either Rich Kreitling or Frank Clarke in Renfro's place Sunday if his foot still is sore.

Kreitling, the Browns' first draft choice, was shifted to the flanking spot last week against the Chicago Cardinals. Clarke has been playing behind end Billy Howton on the right side.

Renfro said he was hopeful his foot would be all right Sunday. "I don't want to miss that one," he said.

Winter Olympics Director Resigns

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Robert L. King resigned as executive director of the 1960 Winter Olympic Games Organizing Committee Thursday saying he had a job offer that couldn't wait.

Committee Chairman Prentis C. Hale accepted the resignation, effective with 30 days, with regret and wished King well in his new, but unannounced post.

WHO SAID THIS IS A MAN'S GAME? — Looking like an accident victim, Antoinette Green surprised thousands of World Series fans and police in Comiskey Park by dashing onto the field during batting practice and running the bases. She slid into each base, rolled over and kept running until police finally caught her (bottom right).

Golf Enthusiasm Brings Pen Term

CINCINNATI (AP)—Norman E. Davis, 27, Hamilton golf enthusiast, must spend one to seven years in Ohio Penitentiary for violation of probation.

The term was set Thursday by Common Pleas Judge Ralph Kohlen after the prosecution indicated a bad check, traced to Davis, was issued Aug. 4—the very day Davis appeared before Judge Kohlen on another charge of larceny by trick—using a false name to obtain a $142 bank loan.

Davis asked for leniency at that time, saying he had needed the money to play golf and had spent too much time at the sport. The judge put Davis on five years probation and warned him to give up the game if it produced more money troubles.

White Sox Not Exactly Sad About World Series Defeat

CHICAGO (AP)—The Dodgers were happy and the Sox weren't sad.

That was the summation of the two dressing rooms Thursday after the Los Angeles Dodgers had defeated the Chicago White Sox 9-3 to take the 1959 World Series fourth game to two.

Dodger utility man Don Zimmer shouted "so the Coliseum got 'em" in reference to White Sox remarks of having to play in a makeshift park in Los Angeles.

But the White Sox weren't taking him up on it. For them, the long, tense season was over and they were looking for a rest.

White Sox and major league officials pushed their way into the Dodger dressing room to offer congratulations to Manager Walter Alston. And Alston was smiling from ear to ear.

"This victory seems bigger to me right now than the 1955 championship over New York in seven games," said Alston. "This was a better team effort. It was the hardest working team I've ever had. I can't single out any player as our key man. But I'll say I've never seen a kid so young so good as Larry Sherry."

Sherry, the 24-year-old relief ace, was swarmed under by well-wishers and newsmen. "I had good luck, they were swinging at my pitches, I just wanted to get the batters out," were Sherry's routine answers to routine questions.

Coach Chuck Dressen, who was ejected from the game in the fourth inning after a hassle with Umpire Ed Hurley, said: "We beat those White Sox at their own game. We outman them, and Lord knows we sure outthrew them. We were very satisfactory. We just played better."

After shaking off the effects of having lost, the White Sox settled down and went about their business of getting home for the winter.

Manager Al Lopez called the loss "one of those things. We lost the ones we should have won. This one we were never in. We had our chances in the series, but just didn't make it."

Team members went around shaking hands with each other and wishing each other "a good winter."

Rugged Competition Faces Ohio Collegiate Gridders

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There is rugged competition on all fronts for Ohio's collegiate football teams this weekend.

Ohio State entertains Illinois in the feature of an attractive 21-game program which could produce some big upsets.

At stake is first place in the Mid-American, Ohio Conference and Mid-Ohio League. Also in jeopardy is the unblemished record of eight unbeaten, untied Buckeye teams.

At Athens, Ohio University (2-0) tangles with tough Xavier (3-1) and the Musketeers may be on the rebound after absorbing a 33-7 loss to Miami last week.

Miami and Bowling Green, both 1-0 in the rugged Mid-Am loop, get a chance to tie Ohio for the lead. The Redskins invade Kent State, a 46-0 loser to Ohio a week ago, and Bowling Green is host to Western Michigan, 1-1 in the conference.

The big one in the Ohio Conference pits Heidelberg and Akron in a tiff at Tiffin. The Student Princes, atop the state standings with a 3-0 mark, need this one to keep pace with Capital and Wooster at the head of the OC pack. The Zips, 2-1 in loop play, must win to stay in contention.

In the Mid-Ohio, Findlay visits Defiance in the loop's top game. Both are 1-0 as is Bluffton, which journeys to Ada to play Ohio Northern.

Ohio State's battle with Illinois launches the Big Ten season for the Buckeyes who will try to bounce back after last week's 17-0 loss to Southern California. The Illini come to Columbus fresh from a 20-14 victory over highly-touted Army.

The Ohio Stadium contest won't be the only grid activity in Columbus. Surprising Capital, with Al White the big attraction, is at home to Kenyon. White, a 175-pound soph from Portsmouth, has tallied eight touchdowns in Cap's two victories.

In a game Thursday night, Youngstown (4-1) notched a 6-0 win over Baldwin-Wallace (0-3).

Other games Saturday: Missouri Valley: North Texas State at Cincinnati (night).

Mid-American: Marshall at Toledo (night).

Mid-Ohio: Wilmington at Ashland.

Presidents' Conference: W. & J. at Case Tech, Western Reserve at Bethany.

Non-conference: Dayton at Holy Cross, West Virginia State at Central State, John Carroll at Wayneburg.

Alston Calm In Accepting Series Praise

CHICAGO (AP) — You could never tell it by the calm manner in which he was accepting congratulations and by the serious, almost solemn look on his round face that the happiest man in the Dodgers' dressing room was Walter Alston.

The Dodgers' World Series success, capping their pennant victory, was in many ways a personal triumph for this kindly, good-natured, shy, Ohioan who, after six seasons of big league managing, finally has convinced his hard-bitten critics that he is a highly capable leader.

"From a personal standpoint, this would have to be my greatest triumph, at least the most satisfying," he said slowly, choosing every word. "Winning the World Series with the Dodgers back in 1955 gave me a big thrill. At the time it was the greatest. After all, it was only my second year of managing, and it was the first world championship ever won by Brooklyn."

"But the Dodgers of '55 were a great team. They were more or less, expected to win. We won 20 of our first 22 games and won the pennant by some 13½ games. I don't want to take anything away from either of the teams but I think this team has given me a greater kick."

"After all, it wasn't expected to win. It started off slowly and gradually got better. This was a team job, pure and simple."

As a manager he hit a grand slammer, becoming the only one ever to capture the world championship on both coasts—Brooklyn and Los Angeles.

State Supreme Court Clears Way for Fayette Schools

WASHINGTON, C. H. — Farmer-Industrialist Sam B. Marting, of Fayette County, whose injunction action against the Miami Trace Rural Board of Education has held up sale of a building bond issue for 13 months, lost his fight in the Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday afternoon.

In the opinion of an attorney for the board, the court action opens the way for completion of the bond sale transaction.

The state's highest tribunal, overruled a motion by Marting's counsel which sought a further review of their client's suit. Marting's petition had been dismissed by two lower courts.

The Supreme Court's refusal to consider his appeal has the effect of upholding in full the opinions of the Fayette County Common Pleas Court and the Second District Court of Appeals which struck Marting's pleadings as "sham", "frivolous" and "vexatious."

The plaintiff's attorneys had asked a Supreme Court review of the case on questions of law. The high tribunal made no comment on its decision overruling the appeal motion.

WHILE ANOTHER SUIT against the rural board is on appeal to the Supreme Court from dismissal in the appellate court, Richard C. Addison, Columbus, one of two attorneys for the board, said that in his opinion a mandamus action brought by Mrs. Jean Rhoad, Mrs. Roxana Abbott and Mrs. Martha Scott is not an impediment to sale of the bonds.

Addison, who with Miss Grace Fern Heck, Springfield, argued against the Marting motion in the high court, said that his opinion is based on the fact that the women's suit does not challenge validity of the bonds but asks a court order for opening the board's books for their inspection.

The board's attorneys argued in the appellate court that the three women already have seen the books and even asked that the court order them to make a thorough inspection of records.

Marting told The Washington C. H. Record - Herald that he had no comment on the Supreme Court's decision on his appeal motion, and spokesmen for the rural board of education said that their course of action would be guided by their legal counsel following an analysis of the situation.

MARTING FILED his suit in Fayette County Common Pleas Court on July 10, 1958, the day the $1,652,500 Miami Trace bond issue for the construction of a consolidated high school, was to be sold after an earlier court delay of nearly two years.

The board had received what it regarded as a "very favorable" bid on the issue, but it was unable to deliver the bonds to J. A. White and Co., Cincinnati, because it is the practice of bonding houses not to accept delivery of bonds when their validity is clouded by litigation.

Six weeks after the suit was filed and after the school board had moved its dismissal as "a delaying action, without merit," Judge John P. Case struck all five causes of action presented by Marting, holding that they were frivolous, vexatious and sham pleadings.

ON MAY 14, 1959, the Second District Court of Appeals upheld the Common Pleas Court decision, and the rural school district again advertised the bonds for sale, but these proceedings were halted when Marting's counsel filed a motion to certify the record to the Supreme Court, the preliminary step for an appeal to the highest state tribunal.

The Supreme Court is a "permissive" tribunal and hears only those cases in which there is a question of constitutional rights, conflicting decisions by lower courts or cases which involve matters of major public interest.

MARTING'S CAUSES of action, some of which Judge Case termed "fantastic" and "demonstrating contempt for the intelligence of the court," included allegations that the plaintiff believed the Miami

Trace board had failed to comply with provisions of the Ohio Uniform Bond Act; that the Citizens Committee issue clouded the bond proceedings; that there was a question of the validity of a bond lien on the New Holland district which had been made a part of the Miami Trace district; that there was a question as to the validity of liens on areas newly annexed to Washington C. H.; that the imminence of a school survey (later turned down by the State Board of Education) would have an effect on the issuance of the bonds; that the proposed school site (at Eber) would create transportation difficulties and that a building on the Eber site would endanger the Washington C. H. water supply.

Embezzler's Art Collection Going on Sale

NEW YORK (AP) — Bids of $23,810 took part of a convicted Ohio embezzler's art collection here Thursday as it went on the auction block.

The 3,500-piece art and antique array, valued between $200,000 and $250,000, is owned by D. Omer Tobias of Piqua, Ohio.

Tobias is serving a seven-year sentence at Ohio Penitentiary for grand larceny. Police accused him of embezzling $375,000 from the Hobart Manufacturing Co. of Troy, Ohio, to finance his artistic tastes.

Five more auction sessions will be held to sell the items. An Ohio court ordered the proceedings in order to reimburse the Troy firm. It is estimated that Tobias paid nearly $400,000 for the collection. Art authorities say Tobias paid too much for some items and the full amount is not likely to be recovered.

Tobias, 59, had been a clerk with the company 30 years. He was described by fellow employees as a mousy-type bachelor who lived within his $4,800 annual salary. When he disappeared last October police found the collection and the company discovered the shortages.

State Education Aides Clear Kalida School in Religion Fuss

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Four Ohio Department of Education officials report they found nothing at the Kalida Elementary School in Putnam County to substantiate a charge that all students there are being taught Roman Catholic doctrine.

E. E. Holt, Ohio superintendent of public instruction, released a report Thursday that indicates there is now no evidence of doctrinal instruction or sectarianism at the Kalida school, although the school is taught primarily by Catholic nuns.

The investigation was ordered after approximately 20 parents complained that their children were being taught religious doctrine in a school operated as a public institution.

Holt reported the school is owned by St. Michael's Catholic Church in Kalida and rented to the county board of education for $8,100 per year. Almost 90 per cent of the 13 on the teaching staff are nuns.

The report states that opening exercises which formerly consisted of prayer and the sign of the cross have been discontinued.

"There were no religious symbols or adornments of any kind in or upon the building" except for a cross over the front entrance, the report states.

U.S. Envoy Calls for Hike In Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said today the millions of people in underdeveloped lands constitute a bigger challenge to the free world than the challenge of communism. The chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations called for a sweeping campaign by American citizens to "work as hard for the triumph of freedom and decency" as the Communists are working to sell their cause.

In an address before the National Press Club, Lodge warned that many of the countries on the sidelines "in Asia, Africa and the Middle East do not by any means take it for granted that the Western-style of freedom is better than communism."

He said there can be no doubt that the free world is in competition with a militant communist leadership, but he added: "If we do what we are capable of doing, the Soviet Union will never surpass us."

One of the ways to gain popularity in the underdeveloped countries, Lodge said, is to increase foreign aid, especially the aid channeled through the United Nations and its agencies.

Lunik Scheduled To Start Return

MOSCOW (AP)—Lunik III today approached the point-of-return for a sweeping orbit around the earth after its flight behind the moon.

On emerging from the moon's field of gravity, the speed of the space vehicle slowed steadily. It was last reported making only half a kilometer a second—compared to the moon's one kilometer a second. A kilometer is five eighths of a mile.

The 614-pound flying laboratory is expected to begin its return journey by Saturday. It was reported 278,200 miles from the earth Thursday.

The Soviet news agency Tass said all equipment aboard is still functioning perfectly.

Central Development Co. Charged with Illegal Transfers

The City of Circleville yesterday filed a $10,500 damage suit in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court against the Central Development Co., Columbus.

Central Development, owned by the McCarty brothers, Ralph and Lloyd, is accused of illegally transferring 21 lots in the Joseph C. Moats subdivision.

It is bordered by Georgia Road on the west; Cedar Heights Road on the north; Mulberry Road and the Ridgewood subdivision on the east, and the Carl M. Bach and Mrs. Merle Thornton residences on the south.

The suit, filed by City Solicitor Robert H. Huffer, alleges that Central Development replatted the Moats subdivision area.

IT FURTHER maintains that the revised plat was never approved by the City Planning and Zoning Commission nor is it on file in the Pickaway County Recorder's office.

The alleged violations started April 20, 1957 when Central transferred three part lots to Paul F. McAfee, a Chillicothe building contractor.

In all, McAfee was sold eight lots and one part lot in the subdivision under fire. Other persons who bought lots were Ralph C. Price, one lot and two part lots; Floyd and Ralph McCarty themselves received four part lots; Willard Edgar Congrove, one part lot; Harold Faye Ben-

Three Injured In Collision On Route 56

A driver and two passengers were injured in a two-car collision on Route 56 about 14 miles south-east of here at 5:10 p. m. yesterday.

Eldon Fox, 49, and Jesse Kneese, 32, both of Laureville, suffered lacerations and contusions. Fox also was treated for rib injuries.

They were passengers in an auto driven by Ralph Nungesser, 24, Route 2, Amanda, who suffered a laceration on the forehead. The injured were treated at Berger Hospital.

The other auto was operated by Gertrude Butts, 52, Route 2, Laureville. She was not injured.

MRS. BUTTS told Deputy Sheriff Charles Felkey that she was headed west on Route 56 and attempted to turn into a driveway. She said the Nungesser car struck her auto in the rear.

Deputy Felkey said both cars were extensively damaged. Nungesser was cited for failure to have assured clear distance ahead, he said.

Macmillan's Conservatives Rout Labor Party in British Elections

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan commented on his Conservative party's sweeping election victory with classic British understatement today. "It has gone off rather well," he said.

Nearly complete returns this afternoon showed the Conservatives had taken more than 20 seats from the Labor party in the 630-seat House of Commons.

The Macmillan party, the nearest approach in Britain to a free enterprise party, rode a wave of prosperity to victory. Dealers were besieged at the opening of the Stock Exchange by brokers wanting to buy shares in British companies. Shares of steel companies, safe for the time being at least from Labor threats at nationalization, led the parade.

A short time later the tabulation of votes put the Conservatives' majority in the House of Commons past the 100 mark. Macmillan's majority in the last house was 53 seats.

HAROLD MACMILLAN

This count from 580 districts

gave the Conservatives 340 seats, the Laborites 235, and the Liberals 5.

Returns from 87 per cent of the districts gave the Conservatives 49.7 per cent of the popular vote, about the same as in the 1955 election.

The popular vote in the last general election, in 1955, went 49.74 per cent for the Conservatives, 46.36 for Labor and 2.70 for the Liberals.

Thus the British electorate spurned lavish promises of tax cuts and pension increases offered by the socialist Labor party.

Instead they backed the Conservatives' free enterprise policies, their "peace and plenty" platform, and chose Macmillan rather than Labor's Hugh Gaitskell to talk for Britain at the summit.

The vote gives the Conservatives a mandate to rule for another five years. Their third straight win is a feat without precedent in modern British politics. As leader of the Conservatives, Macmillan continues in office as prime minister after the new Parliament meets Oct. 27.

Once the election dust is settled, Macmillan will press on in his drive for a summit conference.

While seeking an accommodation with the Soviets, Macmillan stands firmly behind the British-American alliance.

He is not, however, an uncritical ally. As he sees it, Britain's role is to use its long experience in world affairs to try to bring the Western and Communist blocs together.

U.S. officials in Washington obviously were relieved by the Conservative re-election. They foresaw that Allied policy would move forward without change, rather than have to readjust to Laborite ideas.

Oil Tank Truck Rams Rear of Vehicle Halted by Red Light

NORTH BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP)—A professor and nine Trenton State College coeds were burned to death today when a tank truck rammed into a bus taking them home from a theater party in New York.

Eleven girls and the truck driver were injured, some of them seriously burned, in the flaming disaster on rainswept Rt. 1.

The bus carried 40 students, a driver and Dr. Ernest Sixta, 40, professor of history at the college, who was killed. A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he was graduated in 1952 from the University of London where he had been a Fulbright scholar.

They were part of a two-bus caravan which was 25 miles from its destination when the bus stopped for a traffic light in the rain and fog.

The truck smashed into the back of the bus.

The gas tank at the rear of the bus exploded, probably killing Sixta immediately. He was seated in the rear with his wife.

The bus driver said the girls had tumbled out the front door and the rear emergency door which the driver wrestled open.

The flames spread to the cab of the truck, where driver Roscoe Poe, 54, of Brooklyn, N.Y., was hanging out the door pinned by his ankle.

"Don't let me die this way," he screamed at approaching firemen Henry Reilly and Vincent Regan. The firemen worked with wrenches and crowbars to free him.

"Thank God you're here. Oh my God, thank God you're here. Help me, save me," he cried over and over.

Just after Poe was dragged away, the flames reached the huge tank trailer, which held no fuel but was full of fumes. The tank exploded and demolished the truck.

The scene of the fiery crash is opposite the farm of the Rutgers University Agriculture College, North Brunswick is 30 miles southwest of New York City.

The bus driver, Carmen Nini, 40, of Trenton, said he approached

Reuther Calls For End to Labor Wars

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, says some way must be found to avoid private wars between workers and management.

Such wars, he said Thursday night on the eve of the UAW convention, weaken the nation's economy at a time the Soviet Union is growing stronger.

Reuther's 369-page program to the 3,000 delegates included a call for greater militancy by labor in bargaining, organizing and legislating.

Saying big business dominated the national scene, Reuther added: "It is no mere coincidence that the longest steel strike in the nation's history has come during the administration of a Republican President who has enshrined the big business viewpoint in the White House, surrounded himself with advisers and golfing companions from big business and adopted industry propaganda on every major question of the day as his personal gospel."

At a news conference, Reuther said profit-sharing is still one of the UAW's bargaining goals although it got nowhere in the last contract talks with the auto makers. He suggested it might be a good thing for the steel industry.

Red Feather Questions

FOR SATURDAY Q—What is the usual Community Fund gift?

A—At least $1 an agency, or $5.

Fund Collections Hit 45 Per Cent

With many solicitors still to report, the Pickaway County Community Fund stood at 45 per cent of its goal of $30,000 at noon today.

A total of $13,623 has been turned in to fund headquarters to date.

The new total is far short of the goal, but only a few solicitors in the Business, Residential and County Divisions have reported. The campaign is to end Monday, but, as usual, many solicitors will not report until after Monday.

Indications are the drive will have a tough time reaching the goal, unless solicitations pick up somewhat.

Solicitors are urged by fund officials to make a final effort to make all their calls before Monday. Extra effort will be needed if the Community Fund is to reach its goal for the third year in a row.

IT IS POSSIBLE that some persons have not been contacted by a volunteer worker. If so, those persons are urged to call Community Fund headquarters, GR 4-3012, and a solicitor will call.

Fund president Mrs. Karl Mason said today, "The drive certainly is not 'in the bag' until all calls have been made and all money turned in to headquarters. It's entirely possible that the goal will not be reached unless citizens give until it feels good and solicitors makes every contact."

The Community Fund supports the Pickaway County activities of the Red Cross, Salvation Army,

Ohio Tax Due On Church Dinners

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Sales tax must henceforth be collected on dinners and socials given by religious, charitable and other organizations, Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers announced Thursday.

Bowers filed a repealer on a tax department rule with the secretary of state. He said the rule was inconsistent with an amendment legislated this year to the sales tax law governing casual and isolated sales.

Now, the commissioner said, all sales of property by organizations and others who acquired such property for sale will require collection of the tax.

40 et 8 Faces Edict On Racial Restrictions

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The American Legion is going to get rid of racial restriction in its subsidiary 40 et 8 Society or get rid of the 40 et 8.

The legion's Executive Committee authorized Commander Martin B. McKneely Thursday to "take any and all measures he may deem necessary" to get the restriction abolished. His authority covers disowning the society if necessary.

The legion itself draws no color line.

Boy, 6, Loses 19-Day Battle Against Death

Little 6-year-old Bryon Floyd Moss lost his desperate fight for life at 11:45 p. m. last night after suffering 19 days with third and second degree burns covering his entire body.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moss, Route 1, died in Children's Hospital, Columbus, where he had been confined since September 20.

Young Bryon suffered the burns at 6:30 p. m. September 20 when he threw gasoline on a burning trash fire behind his home.

His clothes ignited from the exploding gasoline and before it could be extinguished, he suffered third degree burns over 65 per cent of his body and the rest was scarred with second degree burns.

THE PICKAWAY TWP. School first grader was rushed by automobile to Berger Hospital where he was given first aid treatment and transferred to Children's.

In critical condition for 19 days, his condition took a turn for the worse Monday when his temperature soared to 106 degrees.

According to hospital officials, the burns affected his blood stream.

Young Bryon was born Dec. 27, 1953 in Chillicothe, the son of Kenneth and Helen Kellough Moss, who survive.

Other survivors include a sister, Dianna; a twin brother, Brant; two other brothers, Curtis and Kenneth Jr., all at home, and grandmothers, Mrs. James Moss, Kinnikinnick, and Mrs. Ida Kellough, Chillicothe.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 p. m. Sunday in the Church of Christ in Christian Union with the Rev. Richard Humble officiating.

A special college guidance program session for Circleville and area high school students and parents will be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the CHS social rooms.

The special program, directed by the Circleville High School guidance and counseling staff, will give an insight on what colleges expect of entering students.

Richard Snouffer, assistant principal and guidance counselor at CHS, said costs of college tuition, room and board, aspects of college social life and other points will be discussed. Parents, county students and the general public are especially invited to attend.

Staff teachers assisting Snouffer are Mrs. Clark Will, Mrs. Charles Boggs and Richard Fisher. Superintendent George Hartman and Principal J. Wray Henry also will assist with the program.

SCHOOL officials said it will mark the first time this type of program has been conducted here. They stressed hope that the session will be enlightening to both prospective college students and parents.

Posters noting the counseling program have been displayed at the school, Snouffer said. Interested junior and senior students have been asked to fill out cards in connection with the guidance session.

THE CITY P&Z Commission met last Monday and decided to file suit against Central Development while another subdivision, Merle Turner, Town St., was given a last chance.

In Monday's discussion it was learned that one of Central's owners, Ralph McCarty, had been before the P&Z Commission and told he must have the revised subdivision replatted and reapproved.

The original Central subdivision had been approved by the County Commissioners before it was annexed to the city.

McCarty even consulted with Solicitor Huffer and was told to submit the replatted subdivision for P&Z Commission consideration, according to the facts disclosed Monday.

Instead, the revised subdivision was substituted for the original when it was filed in the County Auditor's office and transfers of lots were continued, the petition charges.

The Commission said these acts were outright flagrant disregard of authority and decided to take immediate action.

Meanwhile, it was felt by P&Z officials that Turner may be misunderstood Commission requirements and desires and should be given a last opportunity to comply with state statute before suit is filed.

Proposed Water Plant Improvements To Be Paid by Rate Increases

One of the first acts of the Circleville Board of Public Utilities after being appointed in 1946 was to employ a firm of engineers to evaluate the water works and to recommend improvements if needed.

A complete report was submitted in March 1947 which contained eight major recommendations. All but two have been accomplished. The two remaining are: Increased water storage and construction of a softening plant.

In 1954 the engineers were instructed to revise their cost estimates of the remaining two recommendations.

During the period between the two reports, the need for additional storage continued to grow, and the 1954 report contained a recommendation for storage facilities double the original. The reason for the increased amount was the unprecedented growth of the city.

In 1958 the engineers again revised cost estimates for construction of the needed facilities.

THE NEXT important consideration was the determination of a means of financing the improvement program.

The original bond issue was mortgage revenue, which pledged the water works income to pay interest and bonds as they came due. This was a "closed-end" issue which prohibits the issuance of additional mortgage revenue bonds.

This situation left only two methods of financing, general obligation bonds, voted by the electorate payable from the city's General Fund, or general obligation bonds payable from waterworks revenues.

It was decided that it was undesirable to employ voted general obligation bonds, payable from tax levy and thus crowd the statutory limitation of such bonds.

State law limits the amount of bonds a city can issue against the general credit of the city to 10 percent of its tax valuation.

General obligation bonds payable out of revenues from water works operation are not considered in the net debt of the city when determining statutory limitation of debt. This was the method of financing decided upon by the Board of Public Utilities.

The present schedule of water rates does not provide sufficient income to support a new bond issue. It is therefore necessary to determine the amount of increase required and to set a schedule of rates that will produce the needed income.

City Council passed an ordinance on September 2, 1958 which raised the water rates enough to produce income to support a bond issue to pay for the improvement program.

A referendum was obtained against this legislative action. The electorate has the opportunity to vote at the coming election to determine whether the ordinance shall be adopted.

IF THE ordinance is upheld it will be necessary to demonstrate by at least six months experience that the new rate schedule will produce the necessary revenue.

During that period engineers will prepare detailed plans and specifications for the improvements, for approval by Council. Upon completion of the plans and specifications and on Council approval bids will be taken for performance of the work.

At the same time bids will be taken for the sale of 25-year bonds. After receipt of construction bids the actual cost will be determined. If within the estimate of the engineers then the amount of bonds required will be sold and construction contracts will be signed.

By the time all this has taken place a year will have elapsed and another year will pass before all the improvements are in operation. This means that approximately two years will be required to provide the needed improvements.

One of the first acts of the Circleville Board of Public Utilities after being appointed in 1946 was to employ a firm of engineers to evaluate the water works and to recommend improvements if needed.

A complete report was submitted in March 1947 which contained eight major recommendations. All but two have been accomplished. The two remaining are: Increased water storage and construction of a softening plant.

In 1954 the engineers were instructed to revise their cost estimates of the remaining two recommendations.

During the period between the two reports, the need for additional

In 1958 the engineers again revised cost estimates for construction of the needed facilities.

THE NEXT important consideration was the determination of a means of financing the improvement program.

The original bond issue was mortgage revenue, which pledged the water works income to pay interest and bonds as they came due. This was a "closed-end" issue which prohibits the issuance of additional mortgage revenue bonds.

This situation left only two methods of financing, general obligation bonds, voted by the electorate payable from the city's General Fund, or general obligation bonds payable from waterworks revenues.

It was decided that it was undesirable to employ voted general obligation bonds, payable from tax levy and thus crowd the statutory limitation of such bonds.

State law limits the amount of bonds a city can issue against the general credit of the city to 10 percent of its tax valuation.

General obligation bonds payable out of revenues from water works operation are not considered in the net debt of the city when determining statutory limitation of debt. This was the method of financing decided upon by the Board of Public Utilities.

The present schedule of water rates does not provide sufficient income to support a new bond issue. It is therefore necessary to determine the amount of increase required and to set a schedule of rates that will produce the needed income.

City Council passed an ordinance

on September 2, 1958 which raised the water rates enough to produce income to support a bond issue to pay for the improvement program.

A referendum was obtained against this legislative action. The electorate has the opportunity to vote at the coming election to determine whether the ordinance shall be adopted.

IF THE ordinance is upheld it will be necessary to demonstrate by at least six months experience that the new rate schedule will produce the necessary revenue.

During that period engineers will prepare detailed plans and specifications for the improvements, for approval by Council. Upon completion of the plans and specifications and on Council approval bids will be taken for performance of the work.

At the same time bids will be taken for the sale of 25-year bonds. After receipt of construction bids the actual cost will be determined. If within the estimate of the engineers then the amount of bonds required will be sold and construction contracts will be signed.

By the time all this has taken place a year will have elapsed and another year will pass before all the improvements are in operation. This means that approximately two years will be required to provide the needed improvements.

The Stars Don't Care

Nations cannot see eye to eye on politics and other mundane things, but it does seem they should have been able to sit down together for a quiet and noncontroversial look at the stars.

Such isn't the case, however, the evidence being that the International Astronomical Union may not even be able to agree on a place to sit for its 1961 general assembly.

A galaxy of preconvention problems must be solved. One of them has to do with a possible refusal by the Red Chinese to stargaze shoulder to shoulder, anywhere on the planet, with Chinese Nationalists.

Legislation bars visitors to California, proposed site of the assembly, or to anywhere else in the United States, from such countries as North Korea, Communist China and Outer Mongolia, unless the government feels such visits are important to the national interest.

No complaints come from outer space, however, where the stars don't care who looks at them, or from where.

Farm Assets Show Increase

Statisticians are at work to prove that farmers, in the midst of another bumper crop year, have never had it so good.

In 1940 total assets of farmers were $53 billion, including real estate and physical possessions on the farm. Their liabilities, mostly farm mortgages, were $10 billion.

This year farm assets are estimated at $200 billion and liabilities at $22.6 billion. Thus, the net balance sheet of the farmer has climbed from $43 billion in 1940 to $177.4 billion today. That should be graded down a great deal for inflation.

During this span of years the farm population has declined from 31 million to 21 million and the number of farms from 6.5 million to 4.7 million. But despite that shrinkage farm output has climbed 25 per cent.

These figures may make the farmer feel happy, but not the government. Uncle Sam has $9 billion of surplus crops in storage.

But the farmer still has the problem of selling cheap at wholesale and buying high at retail. That his assets have made such strides despite that handicap is the amazing part of the story.

Wife's Role in Business Cited

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — "We believe that behind the success of most men is a good woman, who is a good influence on him—and 99 per cent of the time it is his wife."

You may have heard a statement like that before. James F. Roach, 66, has said it with conviction, over the years, to some 3,000 women who never broke in to protest. They liked his crisp assurance that good wives are good for business.

Roach, ruddy, white-haired, and a family man himself, is an experienced spokesman of a growing corporation trend—to bring the wife into the American business family.

"We don't just hire the man," said Roach, vice president of the Electroflux Corp. "Technically we do. But actually we hire the wife as well as the man because her attitude inescapably influences him."

One of the deans of door-to-door salesmanship, Jim Roach pushed his first button and sold his first vacuum cleaner 35 years ago in the Bronx, after working 14 years for a cash register firm.

He has become a specialist in pushing the button on the front door of the woman behind the man who pushes the button to opportunity. His story to the girls: "Help your family by encouraging your husbands."

Roach cites statistics at company reward meetings to wives and mothers—no girl friends attend on the company cuff—to prove how important their feminine encouragement is.

"Not one of our top 15 producers is a bachelor," said Roach. Electroflux has thousands of salesmen in the field, won't name the number. Roach placed the income of "established successful" Electroflux foot soldiers at from $7,500 to $10,000, with a fervid few topping $20,000.

Since the company daily puts its sales infantry across thousands of new family thresholds, it is concerned by morality as well as sell-push and product quality.

"I'd guess 98 per cent of our men are married," said Roach. "They tend to make better salesmen because of their home responsibility."

"The most common single fault among wives," said Roach, "is lack of understanding of what is required by their husband to find success—and to pay their share of that price.

These are the basic nine questions that Roach feels the wife of any man trying to sell his way in the business world should ask herself:

"Have you got faith in your husband's ability to succeed?"

"Are you willing and capable of demonstrating that faith?"

"Are you undermining his effectiveness by needless worries?"

"Are you making too many or too unreasonable demands upon his time?"

"Are you being unduly critical about his working evenings occasionally?"

"Are you intruding into your husband's business, rather than being a silent partner in it?"

"Are you careful to avoid gossip and spreading stories? If not, this can be fatal to his job."

"Do you always try to maintain a friendly, helpful attitude toward the people in his organization, particularly toward other wives?"

"Are you trying to 'come out of the kitchen' too soon, and putting a brake on your husband's success by living beyond your means in an effort to outdo the Joneses?"

Cold War Is Defined

By George Sokolsky

We have, for several years now, heard and seen millions of words about the "Cold War" and as is customary in these unarguable days, we do not bother to ask, what is a Cold War? It seems impolite to require definitions; yet without defining our terms, we often move into a morass of verbiage.

As Clausewitz points out insistently in his book on war, its principal objective is to destroy the will of an enemy to resist. He said:

In most wars, this is accomplished by military action, by fighting, by killing, by burning. But these means need not be employed. If the will of an enemy can be destroyed by other and less expensive means, it is sounder to use such means. The least expensive method is one that can achieve an objective without a loss of manpower or territory.

This is what is called the Cold War. It is a device developed by Soviet Russia, the object of which is to break the will of the United States to resist the imperialistic efforts of the Soviet Universal State. It started as an effort to achieve economic and social deterioration; in its current phase, its immediate goals are to depress the spirit of the American people and to frighten them. The principal weapons remain economic and psychological.

What is the meaning of Khrushchev's visit to the United States from the standpoint of these definitions? Khrushchev himself made nothing clear. His speeches were trite reaffirma-tions of his belief in Communism often stated in shockingly juvenile terms; or, they included boastings which cannot be substantiated by any available statistical data. Nothing was said which explains the urgency of the visit, except that the Cold War was moving to the brink of a military war.

A military war takes place for the purpose of disarming the enemy while keeping one's own powers intact. This can no longer be accomplished in any war that employs modern weapons, the destructive power of which affects both sides, leaving power to neutral or to new nations. In a word, war does not pay those who fight it although war can benefit those who do not fight.

Khrushchev had adopted a new form of Communism, namely, one that completely disavows the world revolution. He states his form as peaceful competitive co-existence. In effect, he says: I believe that we can now conquer the world by peaceful means because socialism is superior to capitalism; let us not fight; let us compete and see which side wins.

This is not a retreat. It is a recognition that greater progress by Soviet Russia can be made in breaking the will to resist without resort to military means which can only destroy both countries.

It would be fascinating to know how Khrushchev explained the American visit to Mao Tse-tung in Peking. For what he had to make clear to Mao was that he was in no manner retreating from the Marxist-Leninist line which must include the doctrine of the world revolution.

What we are dealing with is not a change of objective, but a change in tactics. The question must arise: What will happen if the present Seven Year Plan fails to overcome America's economic leadership?

No matter how decadent we may be or how obsolescent our plant may be, Soviet Russia and its satellites cannot in seven years (now really six) equal the productivity and the standards of life of the American people. The time is too short.

There is much talk these days about growth which leads to great confusion. If a country has no steel production at all and in a period of time, creates the plant to produce 1,000 tons of steel, its rate of growth is what? Would you say 1,000 per cent?

But suppose a country produces 100,000,000 tons of steel and does not increase its plant at all because it does not need to, would you say its growth was nothing? And what do these figures prove?

They do not prove that the backward country is moving faster than the forward country. Actually, the machinery of the backward country may have been purchased from the forward country. The rate of growth proves nothing and can be very confusing.

GILBERT HIGHT, in a stimulating radio talk on "Non-sense," offered as a modern example this excerpt from the late Robert Benchley's "Another Uncle Edith Christmas Story":

"Everyone on board," continued the old salt pork, "felt that something was wrong. We were at that time at Lat. 78. Long. 78, which cancelled each other, making us right back where we started from..."

"Don't tell me that we are back at Nahant again," said little Philip, throwing up.

"Not exactly Nahant," said Uncle Edith, "but within hailing distance of a Nahanted ship."

"You just used Nahant in the first place so that you could pull that gag," said Primrose, who up to this time had taken no part in the conversation, not having been born...

Be Wary of Tapeworms

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Most of you, I suppose, have heard a bout tapeworms, but I doubt whether many of you know what a tapeworm is.

There are about 26 different species of tapeworms, although many of them are extremely rare. Chances are, however, that a sizable number of you who are reading this column are right now unsuspectingly harboring tapeworms ranging from one inch to 25 or 30 feet.

Tapeworms are flat ribbonlike parasites which occur in the intestines of humans.

The three general types are taken into the body by raw or inadequately cooked beef, pork or fish.

Dwarf and beef tapeworms infect persons of all ages throughout the country. Fish tapeworms aren't so common, but they are found in Minnesota, Northern Michigan and Canada. Fortunately, pork tapeworms are very rare in the U. S.

Dwarf tapeworms are small, only about an inch long, and are taken into the body through food handled by persons who neglect to wash their hands after going to the washroom.

The beef tapeworm is the most common and reaches a length of from 12 to 25 feet. Some of them are composed of enough segments to fill a two-quart jar.

This type of parasite is conveyed into the body through uncooked infected meat. Once inside, the tapeworm attaches itself to the wall of the intestines and matures in two to three months.

Largest of the three is the fish tapeworm. This is the one that sometimes reaches a length of 30 feet and lives as long as 16 years.

Fresh-water fish become infected by eating infected water fleas. Humans, in turn, become infected by eating raw or insufficiently cooked fish. We believe that this particular type of parasite might cause anemia in some persons.

Generally, though, tapeworms seldom cause any physical disturbance, although in a few cases there may be diarrhea, nausea or abdominal pain. Worry about the existence of tapeworms causes most of the trouble.

Ordinarily, tapeworms can be found only by examination of the stool. Once a doctor does diagnose them, he has numerous drugs which will help get rid of them.

You can protect yourself from tapeworms by following these four simple rules:

1. Don't eat raw beef, pork or fish.
2. Cook your food thoroughly.
3. Use modern sanitation measures.
4. Buy only meats that are produced under federal or some equivalent inspection.

Question and Answer
Worried: I am twenty-one and very slender except for my stomach which is out of proportion and always has been but now it seems to be increasing in size.

Could this be a tumor or cancer?

Answer: An enlarged abdomen may also be caused by other conditions, such as fluid in the abdomen, hernia and weak muscles.

An examination by your doctor should quickly settle the question.

The World Today

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst
Little or big, cold wars are all alike.

To be an able cold war statesman, a man has to learn how to look reasonable without budging an inch.

What he says to his adversary, in effect, is: "I propose to give in to one or the other of your more reasonable demands. In return I ask that you do something I already know is impossible for you. All this will get us nowhere, in reality, but it provides something to talk about, and while we're talking, at least we're not fighting."

In the Middle East's own cold war, Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic has demonstrated the application of this basic cold war rule once again. It is not peculiar to him. It's common to all cold war participants.

That master of cold war politics, Nikita S. Khrushchev, applies the rule over and over again in the big East-West contest.

In Cairo, Nasser shows himself to be an astute student of modern cold war tactics. In an interview with Wilton Wynn of The Associated Press, Nasser expressed willingness to let a United Nations commission carry out a Security Council resolution providing for freedom of shipping for all the Suez Canal, including Israel.

This sounds attractive. Israel

has been trying to force this issue to a showdown. But what is the price?

Israel, says Nasser, must accept internationalization of Jerusalem and the 1947 U.N. plan for partitioning Palestine.

The Arabs went to war in 1948 rather than submit to that program. They lost. Israel occupied territory which otherwise might have been Arab. She also took half of Jerusalem, ancient citadel of Zion, and set up a capital there. Obviously, Israel will not surrender voluntarily on either of these issues.

Neither Israel nor Nasser, who still must be considered the main voice of the Arabs, seems to make much of an attempt to get down to reality in talking about how their 11-year-old state of war might be ended.

But Nasser has put a finger on one thing which might help prepare the way. In his package proposal, he asked that Israel concede the right of Palestine refugees from Israeli territory to choose whether they will return to their former homes or accept payment for their losses.

If Nasser had confined his proposal to swapping the Suez concession for the Arab refugee concession, it would have a chance of getting somewhere. Tied in with the other demands, the proposal remains just talk.

It's possible something could be accomplished if the refugee question could be settled. Few of the million refugees, it is certain, would choose to return to their old homes under Israeli rule. But for the sake of their dignity, they want to have the choice between that and compensation. The payment would be costly, but far less so than a new war, or even the never-ending threat of such a war in the Middle East. The refugee question is the key problem in the search for stability.

The idea of such a swap is sound and logical. Only Nasser, among the leaders of the Arabs, is strong enough to be able to afford logic in that ever-perturbed slice of the world.

THE APOSTLES RECEIVE POWER FROM GOD.

Scripture—Acts 2.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THIS LESSON tells us of the power given the apostles by God when they were gathered together in a house.

"And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from Heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them eleven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them."—Acts 2:1-3.

In his Peloubet's Select Notes, the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes: "As the wind was indicative of power, fire here certainly points to cleansing and consuming power." He quotes A. T. Robertson, who brings out an interesting point in regard to the phrase "parting asunder," when he says, "The idea is not that each tongue was a separate tongue, but each separate tongue looked like fire, not real fire, but looking like fire."

What was the effect of this power from God descending on the apostles? "They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."—Acts 2:4.

"And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when they were gathered abroad, the multitude came together, and they were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?"—Acts 2:5-8.

And they were all in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?—Acts 2:12.

There were in those days, as there are with us today, sceptics who doubted God's power. Mocking the apostles, they said, "These men are full of new wine," which made them drunk.—Acts 2:13.

"But Peter, standing up with the 11, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and harken to my words: For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day (nine o'clock in the morning). But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel: And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams."—Acts 2:14-17.

"Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by Him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that He should be holden of it."—Acts 2:22-24.

"This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we are all witnesses. Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, He hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear."—Acts 2:32-33.

Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ."—Acts 2:32-36.

At Peter's words his listeners "were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."—Acts 2:38.

Peter spoke many other words to these people, and they all believed and were baptized—about 3,000 souls, St. Luke says.—Acts 2:40-41.

There is much wickedness in the world today, although we have fine preachers and evangelists who are spreading the Gospel of Christ. We need them to "prick" our hearts and bring sinners to Jesus Christ and His Father. Let us, who study this lesson, show by our faith and actions that those who have gone astray can obtain forgiveness from Christ Jesus if they "repent for the remission of sins." What a happy world this would be if all the people would believe and follow the apostles' example, "Continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, (eating) with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favor with all the people."—Acts 2:46-47.

Peter ends this chapter by saying, "And the Lord added to the church daily such as would be saved."—Acts 2:47.

Angel of Death is the colorful name given a particular species of mushroom. The commission said Harold Wallin of the Cleveland Metropolitan Park Board definately identified this species among the mushrooms sprouting on Turnpike grounds between Cleveland and the Pennsylvania line.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Give Your Daughter Courage

DEAR ABBY: I have a 14-year-old daughter who is so boy crazy she worries me sick. All she thinks about is boys. She's got boys' names written all over her books. And every piece of paper by the telephone is marked up with initials and boys' names.

When the doorbell rings she runs like lightning to talk to any delivery boy it happens to be.

What really bothers me is she lies. I don't allow her to go in cars with boys so she walks to a girl's house and the boys meet her with a car there. I found this out by reading her diary. I asked her for the truth and she lied to cover up her lies. How can I get the truth out of her?

MRS. G.
DEAR MRS. G.: The only reason children lie is because they haven't the courage to tell the truth. Give your daughter that courage by assuring her that no matter what she has done you will understand and forgive her. Maybe your threats are too frightening and your punishments too severe. Give your child plenty of love and expect the best, and you'll rarely be disappointed.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has made it plain that he prefers the television set to me. Several of my women friends have the same complaint. What could be the reason for this?

IGNORED
DEAR IGNORED: Maybe it's because he can turn off the television when he wants to.

DEAR ABBY: I am beginning to plan my wedding. Mother and I disagree on the list of wedding guests.

Mother says I must ask all my aunts, uncles, and cousins. This includes all my PARENTS' aunts, uncles and cousins, too. And all their children! I could stumble over most of my parents' aunts, uncles and cousins and not even know them. Why must I ask them to my wedding?

It is a small church and I have to consider the groom's family. If they were to invite as many from their side as we invited from our side, we couldn't all get in the church. This whole thing is making me very nervous. Please send me some advice before I elope and settle the matter.

NERVOUS BRIDE

DEAR NERVOUS: Use a little psychology and suggest that that your mother use a little arithmetic! How many people will the church accommodate? The groom's side is entitled to half those seats. Naturally, the "immediate" relatives are on the top of the list. The more remote the relative, the farther down the list. Look off the list at the bottom. Now, wasn't that simple?

Do you have a problem? If so, write to Abby, in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

They will visit in Winter Haven with Mrs. Search's aunt, Mrs. C. H. Groene, and also expect to show the children some of the interesting places in that region.

Miss Mary K. Wood, a freshman at Bowling Green State University, spent the weekend here with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood and her brother, Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haynes are spending several weeks touring through the East and visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Don Postance in New Hampshire.

SINCE THE Brownie Scout Troop had become too large to get the required work accomplished, the leaders Mrs. Charles Search and Mrs. Kenneth Timmons have divided them into two groups. Each group will meet on different evenings.

Friday evening the leaders had a cook-out for the two groups combined. They went to Border's Park for a fine evening of food and games. This was to be the last meeting for two weeks.

There will probably be other girls who would like to become Brownies. But, they cannot accept any more members unless they can find another leader. So, they are on the lookout for a Brownie leader.

Mr. Harley Davis is much improved at this time after a prolonged stay in Berger Hospital following a heart attack. He is still not able to be up, and can sit up only half an hour at a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are both very appreciative of all the letters, cards, and flowers which were sent to the hospital, and also for the many things done for him since returning home. Friends have been very thoughtful and kind.

FBI Accuses Pair in Auto Theft Ring

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two men accused by the Federal Bureau of Investigation as being members of a big automobile theft ring were arrested here Thursday. Several other persons are being sought here and in surrounding states.

Frank J. Kiraly, 33, and Albert Lauerhass, 47, appeared before U. S. Commissioner H. A. Horn on charges of transporting stolen autos out of the state. Arraignment was set for Nov. 9 and Lauerhass was released on $10,000 bond. Kiraly was jailed in lieu of similar bond.

Edward E. Hargett, special agent in charge of the FBI here, said the auto theft ring had been under investigation for some time in Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, Michigan, Georgia, Pennsylvania and New York.

Emil Norman Durand, 28, accused of being involved in the ring, was arrested by the FBI here last May 4. He pleaded guilty to violation of the Dyer Act and is awaiting sentence.

The FBI said the ring stole expensive, late model cars in an area from Detroit to Philadelphia.

Agents said the ring worked this way:

Legitimate serial plates were placed on the stolen autos and the vehicles were registered in Georgia, where the title laws are easy. Then the cars would be brought back to Ohio and reregistered under the Georgia bills of sale. The vehicles would be sold through fictitious car agencies.

Planning Commission Allows Turner Time To File Plat

The Circleville Planning and Zoning Commission last night decided to give Merle Turner, Town St., ample time in which to present his proposed subdivision for consideration.

Turner appeared before the commission last night to clarify a misunderstanding in regards to his subdivision, located in the southeast end of the city.

Last Monday he was given 10 days to appear before the commission with a plat of his proposed subdivision for consideration. Until halted last week, Turner had been transferring lots from his unapproved subdivision.

He came before the commission without a plat but with a right-of-way plat with signatures of several area residents giving him permission to extend Norfolk Ave. 10 feet on their land to comply with zoning regulations.

IT WAS EXPLAINED that this was not what the commission desired. Orin C. Stout, Route 1, Stoutville, the surveyor of Turner's land, said he had platted Turner's subdivision and brought it before someone for approval.

Commission members feel that Stout took the plat to the Pickaway County Auditor's office, but were certain it was never presented to the proper authority.

Attorney Emmitt Crist, 103 1/2 E. Main St., represented Turner before the commission.

Mack M. Wise appealed to the P&Z Commission's Board of Appeals a decision forcing him to abandon his garage business located in the old slaughter house off Watt St.

Monday the commission decided that Wise's garage was non-conforming to city zoning laws which classify the area in which the garage is located as B Residential.

According to City Solicitor Robert H. Huffer, Wise agreed to move his garage business within 10 days after Monday's decision.

LAST NIGHT he appealed. He was represented by Tom A. Renick, attorney, 114 1/2 N. Court St. Renick cited a state law that allows Wise's business to locate in the area and said it is retroactive.

Solicitor Huffer maintains the law does not apply to Wise and remained firm in his decision. The P&Z Board of Appeals turned down Wise's appeal and according to officials, court action may now be taken.

James Ford, 512 S. Court St., appealed a commission permit refusal for erection of a four-unit apartment building at the rear of 166 Logan St.

Ford said he has changed his plans, calling for two units each to face the other on the lot, instead of a four-unit L-shaped building.

Ford's new plans were according to city zoning ordinances and his request was allowed. His original plans called for the building to come within 2 feet of an alley, which was not in accordance to the 5-foot setback requirement.

Robert Kenworthy, rear 422 E. Franklin St., was given permission to erect an 18 by 19 foot addition to his Circleville Appliance and Refrigeration building, located at his home.

HE APPEALED a previous commission decision barring this construction because his business was located in a B Residential area.

According to Solicitor Huffer, a business building in a residential area may be improved if the improvement is not valued at more than 50 per cent of the valuation of the present building.

Richard Spires, 321 S. Washington St., asked permission to erect a carport adjoining his garage, which he is using for his business as a newspaper distributor.

His request was disapproved because the car port would not be 5 feet away from the alley line. It also was brought out that Spires business building is in a B Residential area.

John C. Taylor again presented his temporary southend subdivision plans to the P&Z Commission. P&Z officials ruled that since Taylor's subdivision is outside the corporation limits, he needed County Commissioner approval and would await their decision.

Steel Strike's Actual Cost Is Only a Guess

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The steel strike's harm to the economy can only be estimated. But it has run into the millions. And before all its effects are over, it may run into the billions.

Because things won't be the same again for some time, even if workers are back at the steel mills for 80 days under a federal court injunction. There's a long time lead between orders and delivery of steel. An even longer one intervenes before any effects show up in consumer prices.

It's easy to figure how much the workers would have been paid if they had been working instead of striking—that is, assuming that they would have been working at the same pace as before the strike.

It's easy to figure how much tonnage the steel companies didn't produce and sell—that is, assuming their orders would have held up at the old prestrike rate.

And the loss in pay to railroad workers and coal miners laid off, and in earnings of their bosses, can be figured on the same basis—the assumption that the roads would have been carrying as much coal and ore and scrap and as much finished steel products since July 15 as they were before the strike started.

But what the users of steel in their own plants have lost in lower production, and their workers in layoffs or slowdowns, is harder to come by.

How much they stand to lose after the mills start up again, because consumers' inventories will be exhausted before steel shipments can replenish them, is even harder to estimate. Many think the loss will be quite high.

Many factories had to buy premium-priced steel to keep going, and many may have to buy still more after the mills reopen.

Merchants in the areas hardest hit by the strike and the layoffs can estimate how much trade, other than for necessities, they have lost. Many are wondering how much lower their Christmas trade may be, how much cheaper the presents will be, if any are sold.

The U. S. Treasury also is keeping a nervous eye on tax collections, since both corporate and individual incomes will be down wherever the strike hit hard. With the new federal budget in precarious balance at best, the long strike could be the Achilles' heel of the budget makers.

What the public stands to lose if a final settlement means higher prices for the basic commodity, only time can tell.

The long and bitter dispute could affect future management-labor relations in many lines. The public has come to look on the struggle over management's demand for a return to more control over its mill operations as a crucial one in labor relations. Labor, in and out of the steel industry, takes that view.

That is why so many people have been cool to the idea of calling an 80-day cooling off period. They question whether the negotiations that would be going on during that period would lead to any meeting of the minds. They doubt if it would inspire either side to budge and that would leave the nation with a continuation of the strike on its hands.

Round Rolls--Was Duke's Car

The round Rolls rolls along with Mrs. Obie at the steering wheel.

Correspondent

WILWOOD, N. J. — So you think tail fins are among the latest things in automotive design? Max Obie of Wilwood-by-the-Sea, N. J., owns a 1934 Rolls Royce that has a king size tail fin down its back. However, this is only one of dozens of the unique features of his car.

The car, made for the Prince of Wales (now the Duke of Windsor), was entirely hand-built and took four years to complete. The price tag was $100,000. The car weighs 7,200 pounds and its 22-foot body is made of hand-pounded steel.

The six-cylinder, dual ignition motor is made of aluminum and brass, and all the bright work — steering wheel spokes, gear shift, brake lever, etc., are German silver. The floor covering is lamb's wool and the ceiling of the car is lined with velvet.

Design-wise, the circular doors, back fin and louvers are traffic stoppers. A repaint job, with a mixture of gold powder and lacquer, costs $3,000!

OBIE GOT the car in 1952 by swapping his American convertible plus cash for it. Constructed under today's costs, the car probably would cost about a quarter of a million dollars.

The red velvet ceiling has a sliding skylight roof. Genuine red and white leather seats let down into a bed by releasing the straps on the sides.

The car has circular doors and the fin and louvers allow the riders to see out from the back, but outsiders can't see in.

Mrs. Obie steps out through round door.

The valuable showpiece is very seldom driven. Mrs. Max Obie says, in order to conserve what the Obies hope will be a genuine antique. They usually display the car on a specially constructed truck.

The tail fin is used as a stabilizer when the car is traveling at high speed.

10 Volunteer Firemen Dismissed from Force

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Merle Gifford, fire chief of nearby Boardman, has dismissed 10 volunteer members of the fire department for failure to comply with rules and regulations. He said that on Sept. 17 "several fellows" reported for a fire, spent about 15 minutes there and left. They just wanted to collect the $2.50 paid each for fighting a fire, Gifford asserted.

Summerfield Seeks 'Sound' Government

CLEVELAND (AP) — Postmaster Gen. Arthur E. Summerfield decries "the most crucial problem facing this country" as "the need for all who believe in sound government to stand forth day after day and support the efforts that must be made to maintain it."

By sound government, Summerfield said in an address to the fall conference of the Associated Industries of Cleveland, he means government "with responsible economic policies opposed to inflation, excessive taxation, and misuse of monopoly power."

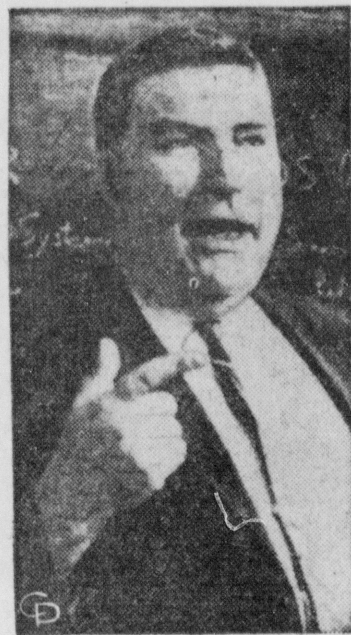

The alternative, Summerfield indicated, is a government "that accepts inflation, confiscatory taxation and abuse of monopoly power as a political necessity."

He called it a "vital victory for the political vigor of the American people" that "the spenders fell back in retreat" in the session of Congress that ended last month.

The postmaster general said passage of the new labor law was "a triumph for the American people" over "what is probably the strongest pressure group this country has ever known." He said he meant "union monopoly leaders" who he foresaw as spurred by the defeat to "be devoted more intensely than ever to the effort to obtain their own brand of political advantage."

Preacher Given Fine, But Penalty Suspended

CLEVELAND (AP) — A fine of $5 and costs was suspended by Municipal Judge Louis Petrash Thursday for Fulton H. Baker, 54, for preaching on the sidewalk in front of Terminal Tower. Baker and four other Baptist evangelists were arrested the night of Aug. 27 under an old city ordinance forbidding persons to "congregate upon or occupy sidewalks." The case caused both the police chief and police prosecutor to assert that the ordinance as it stands conflicts with the Bill of Rights and should be revised.

'EMBARRASSMENT' — Standing in front of a blackboard in Washington, Dr. Herbert F. York, the Defense department's research chief, tells reporters that Americans must be prepared for the "acute embarrassment" of seeing Russia launch bigger space vehicles than the U. S. for several years.

Public Utility Taxes Expected To Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A six per cent increase in public utility taxes is expected this year, according to figures certified Thursday by Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers.

The figures for this fiscal year are $40,261,855, Bowers said, compared to about 38 million dollars last fiscal year.

Some 21.4 million dollars of the taxes will be returned to local governments for poor relief and welfare. Another 18.8 million will remain with the state. This goes into the general fund but the amount and sometimes more is paid out to match local poor relief funds.

Cleveland Unemployment Shows Decline

CLEVELAND (AP) — A survey just completed by the Ohio State Employment Service shows that unemployment in Cuyahoga and Lake counties has dropped to the level preceding the business recession which started in the summer of 1957.

The number of jobless as of Sept. 15 was estimated at 22,000, or the same in July, 1957. After reaching a peak of 72,000 in May, 1958, unemployment in the two counties has been dropping gradually ever since, except for a month of seasonal layoffs last January following the holidays.

The survey shows total employment in the two-county area at an estimated 677,500, a drop of 16,100 in the last two months. The all-time peak was during the Korean war when 731,000 persons were employed.

Donald Smith, Cleveland area manager for the employment service, said the decline during the past two months is accounted for by the striking steelworkers and employees laid off in other industries as a result of the steel strike.

"We're up 1,700 over a year ago despite the strike," he said. The survey shows that average weekly earnings of production workers in manufacturing plants, excluding the struck steel mills, declined from $106.24 in July to $104.24 in August.

Meany Chided By Carey in Labor Dispute

CLEVELAND (AP) — A rift between George Meany, president of the AFL - CIO, and James B. Carey, one of the merged labor federation's vice presidents, looks wider today because of a speech Carey made to a convention here. Carey told nearly 1,000 delegates to the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union convention here Thursday:

"I was so awfully displeased at the AFL - CIO convention when George Meany took off after a man who was doing the right thing in representing his membership."

The reference was to a debate on segregation policies of some AFL-CIO unions during the convention at San Francisco last month.

"It was awfully fortunate that A. Phillip Randolph is a great man, a Negro and a trade unionist," Carey continued, "because he is accustomed to taking abuse. I don't think he ought to have to take it, though, from the leader of the labor movement."

Meany and Randolph, head of the Negro Sleeping Car Porters Union, became involved in a heated debate at the convention Sept. 23. Randolph was demanding elimination of racially segregated union locals and punitive action against locals that resisted.

Meany was quoted as shouting at Randolph:

"Who the hell appointed you as guardian of all the Negro members in America?"

Ex-Ohio Highway Boss Now Working for Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's former highway director, Charles M. Noble, now is a part-time consultant for the White House at $50 a day for the days he works. A White House aide said he works three days a week on the average.

Noble's pay was in the news when he was highway director in Ohio. He was paid $30,000 a year — $5,000 more than the governor under whom he served, C. William O'Neill.

In his new job Noble serves as an advisor to Maj. Gen. John S. Bragdon, President Eisenhower's administrative assistant on highway matters.

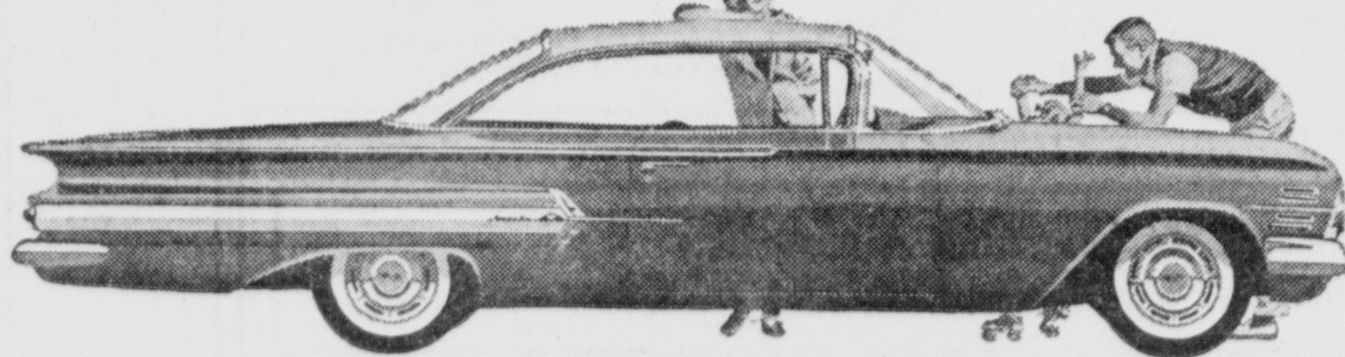

Railroads Ruled Liable For Crossing Warnings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Railroads have to provide grade-crossing warning systems, not the state or county governments, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy ruled Thursday.

The opinion was directed to Highway Director Everett S. Preston.

Preston also was informed that local governments could not "enter into agreements" with railroads to place warning systems.

CHS Tigers Alert For Indian Test

The Circleville grid Tigers probably will find slippery footing on a rain-soaked field at Hillsboro tonight.

Heavy rain has struck the Highland County city this week and the wet gridiron probably will present a real test for the Tigers' speedy offense.

The Tigers, looking for their second South Central Ohio League win in two starts, should be able to make the adverse weather adjustments following a couple mud-splattered practices this week on the local field.

Coach Carl Benhase had his squad inside yesterday in a final session before tonight's trip. Practice in light dress was confined to running plays. Blocking dummies were used to add a little realism.

CIRCLEVILLE will be bolstered by the return of Center Pat Rooney, out of action since the Lancaster Preview with an injured knee.

Coach Benhase said Rooney has worked out this week in pads, but still has not been running at full speed. The determined sophomore ball-snapper should be ready for a heavy assignment within the next few days.

Slated to see heavy duty for the Tigers tonight are Ends Jake Bailey, Dick Warner, Alex Cook and Leo Moats, Tackles Dave Huffer, Dan Leonhardt and John Williams.

Broncs Seek First Grid Win In Madison South Test Today

Still seeking their initial victory of the 1959 football season, the Ashville Broncos will face their stiffest test of the early campaign when they tangle with Madison South today at 8 p. m.

Tied for the Darby Valley League lead, Madison South has a clean slate with victories over Southeastern, 12-0, Triad, and Jonathan Alder, 28-14.

Standout runner for Madison is John Clemans, a returning veteran whose 195 lbs over a 5' 11" frame will be difficult for Ashville defenses.

threat. Bob Rey, a sleek dash man, will be running from a halfback position.

REY won the DV 100-yard and 220-yard dashes last spring and placed second in district competition. Rounding out the triple threat trio of South speedsters is clever signal-caller Bob Edwards.

The Madison County squad will run from a split-T offense. Madison is especially adept at the belly series.

Adding more woe to the Ashville camp is the fine rollout passing off the fake belly series that has shown promise in Madison's first three contests.

The roll-out pass is tough to stop by any defense and Ashville has been weak in this spot in its first four games.

The battle will take place at Madison South where it will be homecoming.

Ashville dropped an 8-0 encounter to Madison last year. The Broncos will be looking for revenge.

THEIR DEFENSE has jellied most of the season, while the offense has yet to get into gear. In the first three games, Ashville gained 633 yards to its opponents' 788 yards.

Rip-Roaring Weekend Ahead Of Colleges

SMU Star Awaits Big Chance in Game Against Missouri

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Don Meredith, Southern Methodist's highly touted quarterback, is supposed to come into his own tonight when the Mustangs face Missouri at Dallas. The inter-sectional game kicks off a rip-roaring college football weekend.

Just why Southwest football observers feel that Meredith isn't up to his usual par is hard to understand. SMU has a 1-1 record, scoring five touchdowns. Meredith has been involved in four. He has thrown three touchdown passes and scored one on a short run.

Coach Dan Devine of Missouri isn't commenting on a Meredith "surge" for he has already felt the sting of Penn State's Richie Lucas, who completed 10 of 11 in handing the Tigers their only loss, 19-8.

Other top games tonight find West Virginia at Boston University, Detroit at Tulane and Oregon at San Jose State.

Saturday the fur flies — and in large gobs in Knoxville, Tenn., Lafayette, Ind., and back again in Dallas' Cotton Bowl.

Georgia Tech and Tennessee meet in Knoxville in a battle of defenses that promises to rock the Southeastern Conference. The winner can draw a head on Louisiana State's SEC title, though only the Vols play LSU.

Ninth-ranked Wisconsin travels to Lafayette to meet Purdue (No. 7) to see if it can live up to its pick to be the Big Ten's champ and Rose Bowl Participant.

In Dallas Oklahoma comes to meet fourth-ranked Texas. Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners are 1-1 but on the upgrade following the disastrous 45-13 opening loss to Northwestern. The game is being televised regionally in the Southwest.

Top-ranked Louisiana State (3-0) plays Miami, Fla., where Hurricane's have emerged with a solid defense. Second-ranked Northwestern plays Minnesota, with the Wildcats also eyeing a Big Ten title after beating Iowa last week.

Fifth-ranked Mississippi pits its 3-0 record against SEC neighbor Vanderbilt, a two-touchdown underdog. The other member of the Associated Press' top ten in action is tenth-ranked Iowa, who plays Michigan State in a game that is regionally televised in the Big Ten area.

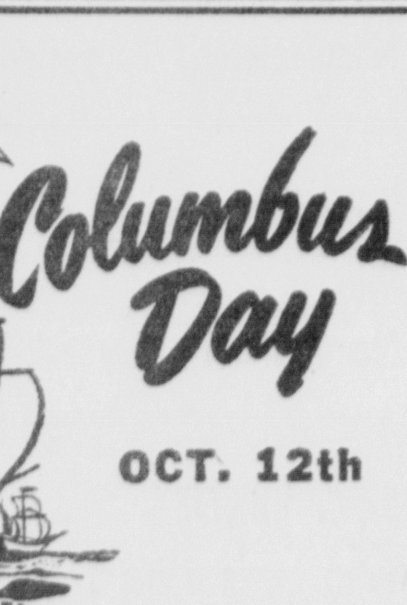

The season's first bowl game—the Oyster Bowl, at Norfolk, Va.—pits power-packed Syracuse, with its second-ranked (415.5 yards per game) offense and top-rated defense (48.0) against Navy, who will get only limited service from top ground-gainer Joe Belino.

Penn travels to Princeton for a good shot at the Ivy League title and Penn State matches passes with Army at West Point in the East's top games. Florida State is at Virginia Tech for the South's regionally televised game.

AN END, Dale Fout follows with 89 yards gained and Jim McNeal is third with 84 yards. Dick Noggle has 36 yards, followed by Clarence Bandy and Cromley, 27 yards, Dan Hollenback, 17, and Gregg, 13 yards.

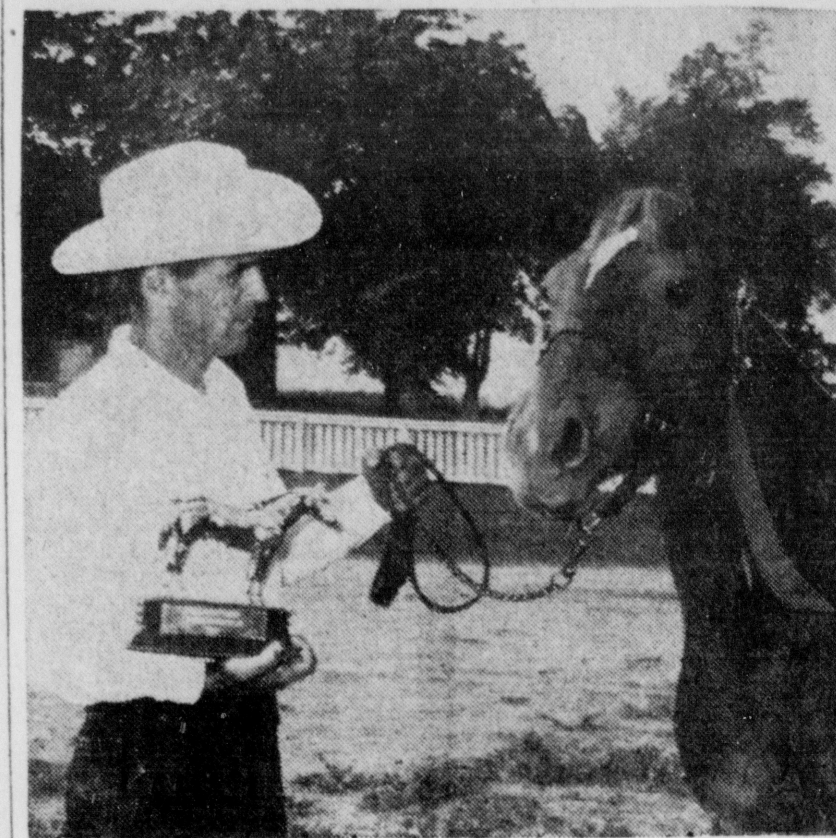

Madison South, a consolidation of three Madison County schools, South Solon, Cannon and Midway, is located five miles north of Sedalia.

Persons planning to attend the game are given the following suggested route. Go to Mt. Sterling, take Route 323 west of Mt. Sterling to Sedalia, then take Route 38 north to Madison South.

Johnson Filly Is Top Horse In Registered Quarter Spot

"KATE BABY CODY"

A Williamsport filly is high point halter horse in the registered Quarter Horse division of the Ohio Western Horse Assn.

Winner of the annual award is "Kate Baby Cody", two year old filly owned by Frank Johnson and son, Williamsport.

Campaigned successfully throughout Ohio and Indiana this season, the champion mare is the only Ohio-bred colt in the top five halter horses of the Ohio Quarter Horse Assn.

Granddaughter of famous Quarter Horse "Bill Cody", "Kate" has

Full brother of the filly and also a winner at halter is the mare's first colt, "Pan Cody", shown to Register of Merit in reining and roping by owner Rodney Vincent, of Washington C. H.

Clay To Oppose Rodriguez in Bout

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Young Von Clay who hoped to be in the position of an upsetter tonight now finds himself the upset target.

The unbeaten Philadelphia light heavyweight originally was scheduled for 10 rounds against Jesse Bowdry, highly rated St. Louis better. Bowdry, ranked third by the National Boxing Assn. and fourth by Ring Magazine, pulled out of the fight. He told promoter Herman Taylor he had a virus and was advised by a physician not to fight for at least three weeks.

Taylor then signed unranked Kid Sixto Rodriguez, California state light heavy champion, as the opponent for Clay in the nationally televised (NBC) bout. Rodriguez sports a 24-1-1 record.

Six-Man Loop In 3rd Round

Darby, Stoutsville Leading Grid Race

The Pickaway County Six-Man Football League jumps into third round action at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow on the County Fairgrounds' field.

League co-leader Stoutsville starts first game action against Saltcreek at 6:30 p. m. Second place Walnut battles co-titlist and defending champion Darby at 7:45 p. m.

Final game of the night finds cellar dwellers Pickaway and Scioto doing battle. Only one team will be in the basement after Saturday night unless the Pirates and Buffaloes happen to battle to a tie.

The Indians will rely on spectacular Richard Bussert to lead them down victory trail No. 3. The 170-lb. speedster is backed by a fine squad of swift backs and rugged linemen.

SALT CREEK, with all the breaks the wrong ones last week, could be the team to halt Stoutsville in its tracks. The passing of Keith Turvey and football ability and desire of George Clifton are capable of taking any opponent to task.

An improved Walnut will face the Darby Trojans, who seem to have a way of winning no matter the odds. Darby has gotten into the victory habit after many years and has become attached to being on top.

The Tigers must stop the passing and running tactics of Tommy Walters and Tommy Liff. Meanwhile, the Trojans will need a spread passing defense to halt the aerial combination of Tom Harter and Dave Weaver.

Last week these two lads joined forces for 20 points and this explosive type football could be Darby's downfall. The Trojans will be seeking their eighth straight win over a two-year period.

The winless meet in the evening's final game. The Pirates, after putting up a bitter defense against Darby, last week fell apart and dropped a 47-12 decision to Stoutsville.

Stoutsville could do no wrong and Pickaway couldn't do anything right. Richard Dean and Joe Goeller are the Pirate stars on an otherwise dismal Pickaway scene at present.

Scioto, fairing no better, pins its hopes on the passing of Dick Kaiser and running of Roy Sanders and Larry Hancock.

Chicago-go-go Fades; Bums Cop '59 World Series

CHICAGO (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers are the world champions of baseball today.

They beat the Chicago White Sox 9-3 Thursday in the sixth game of the World Series — and they did it in Chicago's Comiskey Park.

The Dodgers' victory, behind right-hander Larry Sherry, smashed the hopes of the White Sox, which had soared when the Chicago team scored a 1-0 comeback triumph Tuesday in the Los Angeles Coliseum, returning the Series to their home ground.

The Dodgers got rid of the best in the way of pitching the Sox had to offer, chasing burly Early Wynn early and sending Dick Donovan off in close pursuit.

It was only the second world championship in 10 tries for the Dodgers, their first since shifting to Los Angeles from Brooklyn two years ago.

Both championship teams have been managed by Walt Alton, who has led the Dodgers to three pennants in his six years.

This could be the richest of all series when the record $892,365.04 player pool is split up. A full winner's share should be worth at least $10,000 a man to the Dodgers possibly $11,000. The Sox should get from $7,000 to $7,500 each, which would be a record for a losing share.

This Dodger victory, making them the first ever to rocket from seventh place one year to the world championship the next, is the National League's fourth in six years over the American. The AL still leads in the over-all standings, however, 35-21.

The Dodgers, whose two defeats were shutouts, started rumbling against Wynn in the third in the finale when Duke Snider sent a 400-foot home run into the lower left-center-field seats with a man on.

Wynn, the first game winner at 11-0, got as far as the fourth inning in his third start of the series. The big right-hander showed quick signs of wildness. He gave way when Dodger southpaw Johnny Podres walloped an RBI double to center.

That brought in right-hander Donovan, whose brilliant relief performance in Los Angeles had saved the fifth game for the Sox. This time, he gave up a walk to Junior Gilliam, a two-run double by Charlie Neal and a two-run homer by Wally Moon.

That made it a six-run inning, the Dodgers' largest ever in a series, and led to a string of six Sox pitchers. No. 5 was Billy Pierce, the experienced little southpaw.

There is no doubting the big man of the series. At 24, Sherry proved a cool, careful right-handed reliever. He was in on each of the Dodgers' four victories.

In all, he worked 12 2-3 innings in the four games, giving up eight hits and just one run while walking but two and striking out five in the series — first ever without a complete game pitcher on either club.

The Sox, a tight defensive club that made the most of its opportunities to win its first pennant in 40 years, were unsettled by the Coliseum, where the white-shirted, three-game crowd of 277,550 provided a poor background for fielders and hitters alike.

But Manager Al Lopez figured the best way to say what beat his Sox was "Sherry and Neal. They were the difference."

Neal, the thin thumper who plays second base, led both clubs with 10 hits and batted .370. He won the second game with two home runs.

Ray Renfro May Miss Giants Game

CLEVELAND (AP)—A foot ailment may keep Ray Renfro on the sidelines when the Cleveland Browns meet the New York Giants in their home opener Sunday.

Renfro, the Browns' fleet flanker back, did not participate in Thursday's drill on defense. A calcium deposit is believed to be causing Renfro's trouble. He was hit by the painful arch condition a few days before the season opener at Pittsburgh, but with the aid of several injections of a pain reliever he struggled through most of that game.

"I didn't realize Ray was ailing as much as he was in Pittsburgh," Coach Paul Brown said Thursday. "He seemed all right before the game and I didn't notice him limping later on."

Brown said he would start either Rich Kreitling or Frank Clarke in Renfro's place Sunday if his foot still is sore.

Kreitling, the Browns' first draft choice, was shifted to the flanker spot last week against the Chicago Cardinals. Clarke has been playing behind end Billy Howton on the right side.

Renfro said he was hopeful his foot would be all right Sunday. "I don't want to miss that one," he said.

Winter Olympics Director Resigns

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Robert L. King resigned as executive director of the 1960 Winter Olympic Games Organizing Committee Thursday saying he had a job offer that couldn't wait.

Committee Chairman Prentiss C. Hale accepted the resignation, effective with 30 days, with regret and wished King well in his new, but unannounced post.

Forty per cent of the cotton supply of the world is raised in the United States.

Golf Enthusiasm Brings Pen Term

CINCINNATI (AP)—Norman E. Davis, 27, Hamilton golf enthusiast, must spend one to seven years in Ohio Penitentiary for violation of probation.

The term was set Thursday by Common Pleas Judge Ralph Kohlen after the prosecution indicated a bad check, traced to Davis, was issued Aug. 4—the very day Davis appeared before Judge Kohlen on another charge of larceny by trick—using a false name to obtain a $142 bank loan.

Davis asked for leniency at that time, saying he had needed the money to play golf and had spent too much time at the sport. The judge put Davis on five years probation and warned him to give up the game if it produced more money troubles.

SATCH, NATCH! — Old Satchel Paige (who said his age is between 40 and 60) returns to action in Brooklyn as he hurled three innings in an exhibition game, fanning four and allowing three hits.

White Sox Not Exactly Sad About World Series Defeat

CHICAGO (AP)—The Dodgers were happy and the Sox weren't sad.

That was the summation of the two dressing rooms Thursday after the Los Angeles Dodgers had defeated the Chicago White Sox 9-3 to take the 1959 World Series fourth game to two.

Dodger utility man Don Zimmer shouted "so the Coliseum got 'em" in reference to White Sox remarks of having to play in a makeshift park in Los Angeles. But the White Sox weren't taking him up on it. For them, the long, tense season was over and they were looking for a rest.

White Sox and major league officials pushed their way into the Dodger dressing room to offer congratulations to Manager Walt Alton. And Alton was smiling from ear to ear.

"This victory seems bigger to me right now than the 1955 championship over New York in seven games," said Alton. "This was a better team effort. It was the hardest working team I've ever had. I can't single out any player as our key man. But I'll say I've never seen a kid so young so good as Larry Sherry."

Sherry, the 24-year-old reliever, was swarmed under by well-wishers and newsmen. "I had good luck, they were swinging at my pitches, I just wanted to get the batters out," were Sherry's routine answers to routine questions.

Bucks Set For Joust With Illini Saturday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's Buckeyes, still green and their offensive-defensive strength still a question mark, launch their Big Ten football campaign Saturday against Illinois.

More than 82,000 fans are due to witness the 48th clash between the ancient rivals as the Bucks seek their sixth straight victory over the invaders and their 29th against 16 losses and a tie in the long series which started in 1902.

Coach Ray Eliot of the Illini, dean of Western Conference coaches, will be making his final appearance here and he'll be after his fifth win in 18 starts against Ohio. He retires at the end of the campaign to become assistant athletic director.

The rivals go into this one with identical 1-1 records, and the odds-fellows figure the Bucks as six-point favorites. It whittles down, however, to whether Indiana and Army are as formidable foes as Duke and Southern Cal.

Illinois, on a rainy, muddy field, lost 20-0 to Indiana. The Illini bounced right back, however, to defeat Army's fourth-rated Cadets 20-14.

Ohio, after nosing out Duke 14-13, was helpless before Southern Cal and dropped a 17-0 verdict. With each team using wide-open professional-type offenses this year, and Ohio mixing passing with its usually devastating ground attack, this one could be a wild and woolly affair.

Two game figures this season show Illinois has out-gained the Bucks by 150 yards, and allowed 276 fewer than Ohio. If the statistics hold up, the 6-point edge granted the Bucks could fade swiftly.

Kickoff is at 1:30 p.m. (EST).

Jim Hickey, new head football coach at the University of North Carolina, began his career at John Marshall High School in Richmond, Va.

Rugged Competition Faces Ohio Collegiate Gridders

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There is rugged competition on all fronts for Ohio's collegiate football teams this weekend.

Ohio State entertains Illinois in the feature of an attractive 21-game program which could produce some big upsets.

At stake is first place in the Mid-American, Ohio Conference and Mid-Ohio League. Also in jeopardy is the unsullied record of eight unbeaten, untied Buckeye teams.

At Athens, Ohio University (2-0) tangles with tough Xavier (3-1) and the Musketeers may be on the rebound after absorbing a 33-7 loss to Miami last week.

Miami and Bowling Green, both 1-0 in the rugged Mid-Am loop, get a chance to tie Ohio for the lead. The Redskins invade Kent State, a 46-0 loser to Ohio a week ago, and Bowling Green is host to Western Michigan, 1-1 in the conference.

The big one in the Ohio Conference pits Heidelberg and Akron in a tiff at Tiffin. The Student Princes, atop the state standings with a 3-0 mark, need this one to keep pace with Capital and Wooster at the head of the OC pack. The Zips, 2-1 in loop play, must win to stay in contention.

In the Mid-Ohio, Findlay visits Defiance in the loop's top game. Both are 1-0 as is Bluffton, which journeys to Ada to play Ohio Northern.

Ohio State's battle with Illinois launches the Big Ten season for the Buckeyes who will try to bounce back after last week's 17-0 loss to Southern California. The Illini come to Columbus fresh from a 20-14 victory over highly-touted Army.

The Ohio Stadium contest won't be the only grid activity in Columbus. Surprising Capital, with Al White the big attraction, is at home to Kenyon. White, a 175-pound soph from Portsmouth, has tallied eight touchdowns in Cap's two victories.

In a game Thursday night, Youngstown (4-1) notched a 6-0 win over Baldwin-Wallace (0-3).

Other games Saturday: Missouri Valley: North Texas State at Cincinnati (night). Mid-American: Marshall at Toledo (night).

Mid-Ohio: Wilmington at Ashland.

Presidents' Conference: W. & J. at Case Tech, Western Reserve at Bethany.

Non-conference: Dayton at Holy Cross, West Virginia State at Central State, John Carroll at Wayneburg.

Alston Calm In Accepting Series Praise

CHICAGO (AP)—You could never tell it by the calm manner in which he was accepting congratulations and by the serious, almost solemn look on his round face that the happiest man in the Dodgers' dressing room was Walter Alston.

The Dodgers' World Series success, capping their pennant victory, was in many ways a personal triumph for this kindly, good-natured, shy, Ohioan who, after six seasons of big league managing, finally has convinced his hard-bitten critics that he is a highly capable leader.

"From a personal standpoint, this would have to be my greatest triumph, at least the most satisfying," he said slowly, choosing every word. "Winning the World Series with the Dodgers back in 1955 gave me a big thrill. At the time it was the greatest. After all, it was only my second year of managing, and it was the first world championship ever won by Brooklyn."

"But the Dodgers of '55 were a great team. They were, more or less, expected to win. We won 20 of our first 22 games and won the pennant by some 13½ games. I don't want to take anything away from either of the teams but I think this team has given me a greater kick."

"After all, it wasn't expected to win. It started off slowly and gradually got better. This was a team job, pure and simple."

As a manager he hit a grand slammer, becoming the only one ever to capture the world championship on both coasts—Brooklyn and Los Angeles.

State Supreme Court Clears Way for Fayette Schools

WASHINGTON, C. H. — Farmer-Industrialist Sam B. Marting, of Fayette County, whose injunction action against the Miami Trace Rural Board of Education has held up sale of a building bond issue for 13 months, lost his fight in the Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday afternoon.

In the opinion of an attorney for the board, the court action opens the way for completion of the bond sale transaction.

The state's highest tribunal, overruled a motion by Marting's counsel which sought a further review of their client's suit. Marting's petition had been dismissed by two lower courts.

The Supreme Court's refusal to consider his appeal has the effect of upholding in full the opinions of the Fayette County Common Pleas Court and the Second District Court of Appeals which struck Marting's pleadings as "sham", "frivolous" and "vexatious."

The plaintiff's attorneys had asked a Supreme Court review of the case on questions of law. The high tribunal made no comment on its decision overruling the appeal motion.

WHILE ANOTHER SUIT against the rural board is on appeal to the Supreme Court from dismissal in the appellate court, Richard C. Addison, Columbus, one of two attorneys for the board, said that in his opinion a mandamus action brought by Mrs. Jean Rhoad, Mrs. Roxana Abbott and Mrs. Martha Scott is not an impediment to sale of the bonds.

Addison, who with Miss Grace Fern Heck, Springfield, argued against the Marting motion in the high court, said that his opinion is based on the fact that the women's suit does not challenge validity of the bonds but asks a court order for opening the board's books for their inspection.

The board's attorneys argued in the appellate court that the three women already have seen the books and even asked that the court order them to make a thorough inspection of records.

Marting told The Washington C. H. Record - Herald that he had no comment on the Supreme Court's decision on his appeal motion, and spokesmen for the rural board of education said that their course of action would be guided by their legal counsel following an analysis of the situation.

MARTING FILED his suit in Fayette County Common Pleas Court on July 10, 1958, the day the $1,652,500 Miami Trace bond issue for the construction of a consolidated high school, was to be sold after an earlier court delay of nearly two years.

The board had received what it regarded as a "very favorable" bid on the issue, but it was unable to deliver the bonds to J. A. White and Co., Cincinnati, because it is the practice of bonding houses not to accept delivery of bonds when their validity is clouded by litigation.

Six weeks after the suit was filed and after the school board had moved its dismissal as a delaying action, without merit, Judge John P. Case struck all five causes of action presented by Marting, holding that they were frivolous, vexatious and sham pleadings.

ON MAY 14, 1959, the Second District Court of Appeals upheld the Common Pleas Court decision, and the rural school district again advertised the bonds for sale, but these proceedings were halted when Marting's counsel filed a motion to certify the record to the Supreme Court, the preliminary step for an appeal to the highest state tribunal.

The Supreme Court is a "permissive" tribunal and hears only those cases in which there is a question of constitutional rights, conflicting decisions by lower courts or cases which involve matters of major public interest.

MARTING'S CAUSES of action, some of which Judge Case termed "fantastic" and "demonstrating contempt for the intelligence of the court," included allegations that the plaintiff believed the Miami

Trace board had failed to comply with provisions of the Ohio Uniform Bond Act; that the Citizens Committee issue clouded the bond proceedings; that there was a question of the validity of a bond lien on the New Holland district which had been made a part of the Miami Trace district; that there was a question as to the validity of liens on areas newly annexed to Washington C. H.; that the imminence of a school survey (later turned down by the State Board of Education) would have an effect on the issuance of the bonds; that the proposed school site (at Eber) would create transportation difficulties and that a building on the Eber site would endanger the Washington C. H. water supply.

Embezzler's Art Collection Going on Sale

The 3,500-piece art and antique array, valued between $200,000 and $250,000, is owned by D. Omer Tobias of Piqua, Ohio.

Tobias is serving a seven-year sentence at Ohio Penitentiary for grand larceny. Police accused him of embezzling $375,000 from the Hobart Manufacturing Co. of Troy, Ohio, to finance his artistic tastes.

Five more auction sessions will be held to sell the items. An Ohio court ordered the proceedings in order to reimburse the Troy firm.

It is estimated that Tobias paid nearly $400,000 for the collection. Art authorities say Tobias paid too much for some items and the full amount is not likely to be recovered.

Tobias, 59, had been a clerk with the company 30 years. He was described by fellow employees as a mousy-type bachelor who lived within his $4,800 annual salary. When he disappeared last October police found the collection and the company discovered the shortages.

State Education Aides Clear Kalida School in Religion Fuss

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four Ohio Department of Education officials report they found nothing at the Kalida Elementary School in Putnam County to substantiate a charge that all students there are being taught Roman Catholic doctrine.

E. E. Holt, Ohio superintendent of public instruction, released a report Thursday that indicates there is now no evidence of doctrinal instruction or sectarianism at the Kalida school, although the school is taught primarily by Catholic nuns.

The investigation was ordered after approximately 20 parents complained that their children were being taught religious doctrine in a school operated as a public institution.

Holt reported the school is owned by St. Michael's Catholic Church in Kalida and rented to the county board of education for $8,100 per year. Almost 90 per cent of the 13 on the teaching staff are nuns.

The report states that opening exercises which formerly consisted of prayer and the sign of the cross have been discontinued.

"There were no religious symbols or adornments of any kind in or upon the building" except for a cross over the front entrance, the report states.

Judge Weick, 60, a native of Youngstown, will maintain his home here as well as an office in Cleveland.
